Subject: Percentage Rent for Treasure Island Housing Project Sublease for Sep 2014

Enclosed is our payment of Percentage Rent in the amount of $192,534 for the Sep 2014 period, calculated per the sublease agreement. You should note that these expenses reflect a suspension of reserve funding as outlined in the sublease requirements but continue to include accrued funds to pay Possessory Interest charges of the property. In addition, the amount disbursed has been reduced by $9,378, recouping 1/36th of prior year audit adjustments outlined in the 2010 Audit (with an additional $13.00 deduction in final repayment month). As of today we have recouped 27/36th of prior year audit adjustment and the balance will need to recoup is $84,415.00.

Calculation of Funds Available for Distribution

TIDA receives 95% revenues remaining after adjusting gross revenues by operating expenses, current accretion due and the repayment of ledger balances based on sublease specifications. Funds expended for replacement reserve eligible items are expensed in the period expenses are recognized. To the degree that these costs are reimbursed from the replacement reserve account, percentage rent will be adjusted in the period that the reserve draw is approved.

For the month of Sep 2014, actual Total Revenues were about 2.73% above budgeted Total Revenues. Total expenses for Sep 2014 were approximately 15.48% above budgeted for the month. The result was that Funds Available for Sep 2014 Distribution were $212,539 or about 25.21% below budgeted amounts. This is the result of several major ongoing projects including moisture remediation. These over budgeted expenditures make up 94% of the variance in the amount eligible for % rent distribution.

Calculation of Percentage Rent

Based on operations, a total of $212,539 in adjusted Gross Revenues after costs of operations are available for distribution for the Sep 2014 period. These revenues are distributed as follows:

Sep 2014 Distributions	Sep 2014 Actual	Sep 2014 Budgeted
Available for Distribution	$212,539	$284,166
Percentage rent for TIDA	$201,912	$269,947
Repay Prior overpayment 27 (1/36 th total per period)	-$9,378
Net Disbursed as percentage rent to TIDA	$192,534	$269,947
Percentage rent for JSCo	$10,627	$14,207

This percentage rent breakdown reflects the current year split by TIDA/JSCo. Beginning with April 2005 disbursements, TIDA receives 95% of revenues after expenses, while the John Stewart Company percentage is 5% of the amount.

Monthly Maintenance Common Area Charges 2014

6589—MAINTENANCE-COMMON AREA CHARGES: The figure of an average $28,300 per month/$339,608 per year is included. Common Service charges are referenced in Section 3.1.2. and 3.1.3 of Exhibit 1 as part of the Exhibits to the Sublease Agreement. Common Service Charges are composed of two parts: a charge for the land ($6,886.96 per month) and a charge for the structures ($23,317.54) The Common Area charge for the structures is a function of each apartment's square footage. While Common service Charges per annum have been historically fixed at $30,204.50 per month/ $362,454.00 per year based upon a portfolio of 632 units, this expense was reduced in July 2007 by $1,962.38 per month to $28,242.10 per month/$338,905.20 per year with the return of the 54 "borrowed" units to Treasure Island Homeless Development Initiative. The Common Area Charges are now based upon a portfolio of 578 units.

RE: Base Rent Adjustment for the April 2014 to March 2015 period

Per the Sublease, Development, Marketing and Property Management Agreement between the Treasure Island Development Authority and the John Stewart Company, the Base Rent for the Sublease must be adjusted using a "CPI Adjustment" (Section 15.2). The agreement specifies that the adjustment will use the CPI for Urban and Wage Earners and Clerical Workers published most immediately preceding the Adjustment Date and compare this to the Index published most immediately preceding the prior Lease Year.

The CPI for the San Francisco-Oakland-San Jose area is attached (from the United State Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics).

Based on the underlying sublease agreement language, the underlying $500,000 base rent is inflated by CPI increase between 2013 and 2014. Base rent for the 2013-14 periods has been 620,191.00. The Base Rent for 2014-15 is therefore adjusted as follows:

Year over year adjustment from 2013 to 2014 is $245.148/240.262 = 1.02034$ (see attached)

The new Base Rent adjustment for the upcoming period is:

$$(620,191.00) \times (1.02034) = 632,806.00 \text{ (or } 52733.67 \text{ monthly)}$$

The adjusted Base Rent payments as prescribed under the sublease will thus be adjusted to $52,733.67 monthly for the April 2014 to March 2015 period.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Kohler

Re: Treasure Island Power Outages – October 2014
Cc: Robert Beck, Treasure Island Director

- On Wednesday October 29th at approximately 10:50 AM Treasure Island experienced a power outage. SF Public Utilities Commission (PUC) issued an RSAN Alert, alerted TIDA staff and dispatched repair crews. Power to Treasure Island was restored at approximately 12:00 Noon. Cause was identified by SFPUC as a failed transformer.

Treasure Island Development Authority
Attn: Ms. Miriam Saez, Director of Island Operations
410 Avenue of Palms, Building 1
Treasure Island
San Francisco, California 94130

Dear Ms. Saez:

This year Golden Gate Audubon Society will hold its 74th annual Oakland Christmas Bird Count, on Sunday, December 14, 2014. As in years past, we are writing to request your permission to again send a group of two to eight bird watchers onto Treasure Island to census its bird life. Our area leader may also wish to scout the island for a few hours prior to the Count day, and we hope you will permit this as well.

We understand and agree that the group will conduct the census at their own risk, and we will respect and comply with any special instructions you give while on your property. Further, we understand that the group leader must have a copy of your permission letter as identification in order to enter the site.

I am attaching for your information last year's results for the entire Oakland Count. We do not have results broken out for Treasure Island alone, but would be happy to answer your questions about particular species, etc. Please contact the Count's co-compiler, Dave Quady, at 510-704-9353 if you have any questions about these results.

Thank you for considering this request, and for providing access in past years. To approve access again this year, please indicate your approval on this letter and mail us a copy, or call us at 510-843-2222.

Sincerely yours,

Cindy Margulis
Executive Director

CW = species recorded during Count Week, but not on Count Day
 Bird entries that are not included in the species total are indented and italicized.
 Unusual species are boldfaced - number and name.

Boldfaced numbers indicate high counts since 1974; underscored numbers and names indicate low counts.

Welcome Remarks and Agenda Review

Keith Forman (Base Realignment and Closure [BRAC] Environmental Coordinator [BEC]) opened the August RAB meeting for Former Naval Station Treasure Island (NAVSTA TI) held at the Casa de la Vista (Building 271) on Treasure Island (TI). He asked that anyone who speaks during the meeting identify themselves and use a microphone so everyone can hear, and so the court recorder can get an accurate transcript. Alice Pilram (RAB Community Co-Chair) introduced herself, and noted changes to the format of the agenda (Attachment A). Ms. Pilram said the RAB Standard Operating Procedures state that public comments and questions may be limited. That will be enforced beginning with this meeting in order to make sure all of the presentations can be completed and the meeting can end on time, while still allowing the public to participate. Attendees are asked to limit their questions and comments to no longer than 2 minutes.

Dale Smith (RAB member) said the RAB discussed this new format but did not vote on it. Ms. Smith said she is not in favor of this format. Specifically she does not think the RAB minutes should be discussed first; rather presentations about Site 12 should be first as they are of more interest to the community.

Old Business – RAB Minutes Approval

The RAB provided comments on the June 2014, Meeting 171, meeting minutes. The minutes were approved as final, pending incorporation of comments.

Old Business – BRAC Cleanup Team Update

Medi Sunga (DTSC) said DTSC had reviewed and provided comments on a number of Navy documents since the last RAB meeting, including documents for Sites 6, 21, 24, 27, and 30. In addition, Myriam Zech (Water Board) said the Water Board and DTSC are working together to review the Screening Level Ecological Risk Assessment (SLERA) for Site YF3, on Yerba Buena Island. Ms. Smith asked what the comments on the Site YF3 SLERA will be, and if the agencies think the choice of receptors is representative of what would be exposed in that area. For example, Ms. Smith does not believe tilapia is a good choice, when flounder or rockfish are local to the area. Ms. Zech said the Water Board has not yet submitted their comments on the document, however the Water Board does not agree with the conclusions of the draft report. Ms. Smith told Mr. Forman she will submit her comments on the YF3 SLERA to the Navy.

New Business – Site 6 Record of Decision Update

Mr. Forman introduced Bryce Bartelma (Navy) to provide the update on the Site 6 Record of Decision/Final Remedial Action Plan (ROD/Final RAP) (Attachment B). Mr. Bartelma said he will discuss the radiological characterization for Site 6, which must be completed before the soil and groundwater chemical cleanup begins. The soil and groundwater cleanup is being done under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (CERCLA) process.

Mr. Bartelma showed a photograph of historic fire training activities at Site 6, which resulted in soil and groundwater contamination. An attendee asked if Site 6 is one of the locations where the training ship USS Pandemonium was located. Mr. Bartelma said the training ship was at Site 32, which is near Site 6, and indicated the location on a map.

Site 6 was used as a storage area for bins holding excavated soil from prior Site 12 investigations. Because the soil may have been radiologically contaminated and was stored at Site 6, the area of Site 6 will be scanned for radiological contamination. The Navy is preparing a work plan that will describe how Site 6 will be characterized and how it will be remediated if anything is found. After that work is completed, the CERCLA work can begin.

A Proposed Plan/Draft RAP for Site 6 was completed in Spring 2014 and a public meeting was held in March to solicit public comment on the Proposed Plan/Draft RAP. The Navy is preparing a draft ROD/Final RAP for CERCLA contaminants. The ROD/Final RAP is a legal document that prescribes the remedy. Once the ROD/Final RAP is finalized, the next step will be to prepare a remedial design document, which details how the remedy will be implemented. Mr. Bartelma reviewed the nine criteria for evaluating cleanup alternatives.

Saul Bloom (RAB member) said the City of San Francisco's Environmental Impact Report has designated Site 6 as possibly being a future wetlands area. He asked how that planned reuse fits in with the Navy's planned remedy. Mr. Bartelma said the Navy has been working with TIDA on cleanup plans for Site 6. Currently there is a restriction against construction of a wetland, unless a study is completed. Mr. Forman added that TIDA is in agreement with this restriction.

Ms. Smith thanked the Navy for a quick and thorough research and response on the issue she raised about perfluorooctanesulfonic acid (PFOS) potentially used at Site 6 or other locations on NAVSTA TI in the past. She said she no longer is concerned that there were any issues on the base with PFOS ever being used.

Ms. Smith said the draft ROD/Final RAP mentions sumps and surge pits. She asked where and what the sumps and surge pits are. Dennis Kelly (Tetra Tech) said the sumps were oil sumps. Mr. Kelly explained a channel ran around the perimeter of the fire training area of Site 6, and oil and water would go into the channel and end up in the sumps. There were oil/water separators that would separate the oil from the water. The surge pits were likely for overflow. They were located in the area of Site 6 labeled as "Subarea 2".

Mr. Forman asked for community comments. Kathryn Lundgren (Resident), said she feels two minutes is not long enough for her to be able to make statements and comments. She asked if the Site 6 work Mr. Bartelma presented is separate from the petroleum work. Mr. Bartelma said Site 6 has been in both the CERCLA and petroleum programs. There were underground storage tanks and aboveground storage tanks at the site, which were removed many years ago. When the site is closed under CERCLA, it will be completed along with the petroleum program. Ms. Lundgren asked why asbestos was not mentioned as a concern at Site 6. Mr. Bartelma said asbestos is not present at Site 6, and therefore not a concern. Ms. Lundgren said she has picked up asbestos at the site and will provide the Navy with photographs.

Bradley Krauss (Pensioners Football Club) asked what was historically stored at Site 6, and what was done with those stored items. Mr. Clark explained there were metal bins at the site that held soil excavated as part of the non-time critical removal action at Site 12. They were scanned before being shipped off-site to a landfill that accepts low-level radiological waste.

Carol Harvey (community member) said she believes the term low-level radiological waste or low-level radiological object (LLRO) is an artificial and misleading term. Mr. Forman said the term was not created by the Navy; it is an official term used by the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) and used by the California Department of Public Health (CDPH).

New Business – Site 12 Field Work Progress

Mr. Forman introduced Chris Yantos (Navy) to provide the update on Site 12, the Treasure Island housing area (Attachment C). Mr. Yantos said he will provide an update on three of the projects in the housing area: (1) the interior radiological scans of the housing, (2) upcoming building demolition, and (3) cleanup at Bigelow Court.

Earlier today (19 August), the Navy and contractors reached 100% completion of the interior scans of the housing. In the 50 days of scanning, 794 units were scanned (residences and garages counted separately). In total, there were three elevated radiological detections. The Navy and CDPH agree that they do not pose a health concern. TIDA sent a letter to residents with their individual scanning results. Mr. Yantos reviewed the three elevated readings, including the location within the unit, date it was found, and a photograph (slides 4-6 of Attachment C).

Mr. Yantos reviewed the second project, building demolition. He showed a photograph of the site preparation prior to demolition that will take place on Westside, Bayside, and North Point Drives. The purpose of the demolition is to access soil underneath the buildings to conduct radiological characterization and ultimately gain radiological free release of the site from CDPH. Slide 7 of Attachment C lists all of the buildings to be demolished and the approximate schedule.

Mr. Yantos moved on to the update for work at Bigelow Court. Soil is being excavated, placed on radiological screening pads, and sampled for radiological contamination. Two LLROs were found during soil screening at the screening pads; Mr. Yantos showed photographs of the two LLROs. There are four screening pads, containing about 1,700 cubic yards of soil. Mr. Yantos said some step-out samples were collected in a few areas of the excavations, as indicated on slide 10. Tommie Jean Valmassy (Tetra Tech) noted that there was a mistake with the handouts for this presentation. At the meeting, Attachment C was only provided through slide 8. A hard copy of the full handout will be mailed to all RAB members and any attendees who provide their address on the sign-in sheet. In addition, extra hard copies of the full presentation will be brought to the next RAB meeting in October.

An attendee asked what a "step-out" is. Mr. Yantos explained a step-out is when a sample exceeds release criteria, so additional samples are taken in the area, screened, and more samples may be taken again, until the extent of the contamination above screening level is found. Mr. Forman clarified that these step-out samples are for lead and polychlorinated biphenyls (PCB), which are CERCLA contaminants and are not related to radiological contamination. Ryan Martin (RAB member) and Ms. Harvey asked what the source of the lead is. Mr. Clark said it is not possible to be certain about the source of the lead, though it may be from items stored there when it was a storage area. Mr. Forman said there are conceptual site models that help estimate the sources of the chemicals, but there is no pinpoint accuracy as to the source. Ms. Smith said she would like to point out that the Navy's action level for lead is above DTSC's level, and above the level recommended by the World Health Organization.

John Gee (RAB member) asked what a safe level is for radiological contamination. Mr. Forman said the Navy has to characterize and action level, and that action level is 10 milliroentgens equivalent man (millirem) per year. However, that level is lower than any safety level; the action level is very conservative.

Andrea McHenry (resident) asked Mr. Yantos to point out the locations of the buildings that are going to be demolished. She noted they are wind blocks;

Treasure Island is very windy, and those buildings help prevent too much wind. She asked what the Navy will put in place of those buildings to help block the wind. Mr. Forman said after the building is demolished and the area is remediated, there are no further plans. Nothing will be put in place of the buildings; the City of San Francisco will ultimately receive the land and redevelop it. He added that the area will be backfilled with clean soil and then is covered with something to prevent dust, such as gravel or vegetation. Mr. Clark said the particulars of site restoration are not yet finalized, so he does not know exactly what will be put down.

Ms. McHenry also asked why the Navy is cleaning lead to an action level of 400 milligrams per kilogram (mg/kg) if the DTSC action level is 80 mg/kg. Ms. Sunga said the lead level for residential land use is 400 mg/kg. However, the level is a statistical level, and confirmation sample data will be reviewed by a toxicologist before the site is closed. Ms. McHenry said she is concerned that she appears to be living next to an area with PCBs.

Ms. Lundgren asked if Site 12 will ever be cleared for residential use, and if not, why not. Mr. Forman said there is no ROD/Final RAP yet for Site 12, so he cannot say what the ultimate cleanup will be. He said TIDA has asked the Navy to clean to residential standards for Site 12. The Navy is still at the feasibility study stage. Ms. Lundgren said she would like the Navy to have a housing plan for residents of TI in the event of an emergency, such as an earthquake, that could bring contamination to the surface. She added she does not think residents from Yerba Buena Island should have to move into Treasure Island.

Glenda Williams (resident) said she is concerned about the residential radiological screening that was done at her house today. She communicated that she wanted to be present for any screening, but they began scanning her garage without her presence.

Becky Hogue (resident) said she would like to be kept informed of the field work plans and dates for her area, near Bayside and North Point. The dates for building demolition keep moving. Mr. Yantos said work notices will be provided, and Mr. Forman asked Ms. Hogue how the Navy can better communicate with her. Ms. Hogue said on a monthly basis she would like the Navy or TIDA to let residents know what is planned, even if it is nothing, so she knows if the project is taking place or if it is delayed. Ms. Hogue said she is concerned about rodents and unwanted pests moving into occupied housing areas when vacated buildings are demolished. Mr. Forman said he will raise that issue with Bob Beck (TIDA) to see how the housing providers can address that concern.

Sandy Agee (resident) said she noticed the fencing around the units planned for demolition seems short, and she can see right over it. She asked if the fences and barriers will be taller when demolition starts to prevent dust from spreading. Mr. Yantos said the work plan has a 100% dust mitigation plan, meaning no dust is allowed to leave the site. In order to accomplish this plan, spraying and misting of water may occur from numerous directions. Mr. Yantos said the barriers are not right up next to the demolition area and there is a buffer zone. In addition, the demolition itself will only take one day. He said the fencing will not be taller; the purpose of the fence is an exclusion zone to mark off the work area, not to prevent dust.

Ms. Agee said she lives on Bayside Drive, and understands a radiological object was found on that street near Ms. Lundgren's house. She asked what the level of radiation was in that object. Ms. Lundgren said she would also like that information. Mr. Yantos said he believes that information has been presented at a previous RAB meeting; he does not have that information at this meeting. Mr. Forman said that information will also be available in an upcoming document that discusses the gamma walkover survey project in Site 12.

Ms. Harvey asked how Site 12 have any reuse at all if it is radioactive. Mr. Forman suggested she read the City's redevelopment plan for more detail on planned reuse. He added that the Navy will seek radiological free release on the solid waste disposal areas. The Navy's cleanup plan for Site 12 is compatible with the City's redevelopment plan. Mr. Beck clarified that the redevelopment plan calls for approximately half of Site 12, the area west and south of the current elementary school, to be developed as residential housing. Ms. Harvey asked what radiological free release is. Mr. Forman said it is a determination made by the State of California called a Recommendation for Unrestricted Radiological Release (RURR) letter.

Ms. McHenry said she is concerned that landscapers used by TIDA will not keep watering at the same level the Navy is watering to keep vegetation healthy and dust under control. Mr. Martin said there is a community meeting tomorrow night (20 August) and one of the topics will be landscaping and water usage on TI. Ms. Lundgren added that the community meeting does not go on the record, and she prefers to have questions answered on the record. She added that the RAB planning conference calls and any discussions after the meeting should also be on the record and the public should have access. Mr. Gee said all of the RAB community members are volunteers, and encouraged Ms. Lundgren to volunteer to be on the RAB board if she would like to be more involved.

Mr. Clark reviewed the Document Tracking Sheet (DTS) (Attachment D) and the Field Schedule (Attachment E). On the DTS, dates in blue indicate due dates for comments; dates in yellow indicate a draft or final will be issued. Mr. Clark noted Item #11 is the Radiological Housing Scan Completion Report; it documents all of the findings from the interior housing scans that Mr. Yantos presented. Another item of note is Item # 25, the Site 12 and Selected Roadways Scoping Survey Report, being issued draft in early September. Mr. Clark noted on the field schedule that there will be some site restoration at Site 31, some various groundwater monitoring, but overall, most of the work is at Site 12.

New Business - Co-Chair Announcements and Future Agenda Items

Ms. Pilram said she had no announcements at this time.

Community Question and Answer Period

Ms. Harvey said she recalls Mr. Clark making a presentation on the Historical Radiological Assessment Supplemental Technical Memorandum, and stating there will be additional meetings about the document. She asked if a meeting is planned. Mr. Clark said there is no meeting planned at this time. He was speaking in the context of the updated Community Relations Plan, which may call for other means of communication including additional meetings.

Mr. Bloom announced that the California Court of Appeals rejected the claim from the Citizens for a Sustainable Treasure Island. Mr. Bloom added that their claim is now being appealed to the California Supreme Court; papers were filed today.

Ms. Lundgren asked if asbestos is in the appliances that have been removed from the buildings slated for demolition on TI. Mr. Yantos said no, there is no asbestos in the appliances.

Closing Remarks

Mr. Forman said he wanted to clarify the guidelines for providing public comments. The RAB Standard Operating Procedures have always stated there is a time limit; the only thing new is that the time limit is now being enforced. He added that this meeting has gone over its time limit again. Mr. Forman said the community plays a large role in the RAB meeting, and he wants to make sure everyone gets to speak while ensuring the agenda is completed and RAB members are able to have discussions. Mr. Forman closed the floor to comments and adjourned the meeting at 9:36 p.m.

Re: Possible Conflict w/Development over AT&T Cable & Easement
Recorded May 3, 1993, Document F347788, Grantor: United States
Dept. of the Navy, Treasure Island, CA

Dear Mr. Beck,

Pursuant to any proposed development it has been determined that the project known as "Treasure Island Redevelopment" will have an impact to AT&T telecommunications facilities and easement. The following terms and conditions must be met before any work activity may be started on that portion of the property in which AT&T has existing rights:

1. A check in the amount of $6,000 made payable to AT&T Corp., sent to my attention at 3450 Riverwood Parkway SE, Room 162, Atlanta, GA. 30339. This check will cover preliminary engineering costs, administrative expenses, right of way research and to establish a cost estimate.
2. Execution of AT&T's standard Reimbursement Agreement which will be provided to you once the pre-payment has been received. The Reimbursement Agreement will identify the scope of work and estimated cost of the work.
3. AT&T will require full payment for the total estimated cost of work as indicated in the Reimbursement Agreement to be paid upon execution of the agreement. The $6,000 pre-payment will be applied towards the total cost of the work.

September 30, 2014

The party executing the Reimbursement Agreement will be responsible for total actual costs. If actual costs are less than the estimated amount, as detailed on the Reimbursement Agreement, a refund will be sent. If actual costs exceed the estimated costs, the difference will be required to be paid within thirty (30) days of final bill.

Should AT&T not receive a response within sixty (60) days from the date of the letter, AT&T will assume alternate plans were made to remove any impacts to AT&T's facilities. If you have additional questions regarding the above information, please contact me at 678-627-5319.

Director, Department of Public Works

Subject: Emergency Declaration and Request for Public Works' Assistance to Expedite Procurement and Installation of Interim Structures to House Fire Operations

Director Nuru:

I write to provide the following information as to an emergency situation which has arisen on Treasure Island. As you know, in 1997 the Navy closed the former Naval Station Treasure Island and ceased naval operations on Treasure Island. Since that time, the San Francisco Fire Department ("SFFD") has served the community on Treasure Island and Yerba Buena Island, providing critical emergency services and protecting the lives and property of residents and businesses on the islands.

Until March of 2014, SFFD operated out of the former Navy Fire Station on Avenue D (designated Station 48 by the SFFD). In March of this year, however, surveys performed by the SFFD revealed the presence of mold in the structure which required that the structure be vacated.

In the redevelopment of Treasure Island, Treasure Island Community Development, the master developer, will be required to construct a new joint-use Police and Fire Station on Treasure Island, but not until 2023 under the current schedule for development and the terms of the Disposition and Development Agreement.

In order to provide continuity of protection for the island, SFFD outfitted existing classrooms at the Fire Training Facility on Avenue M to serve as temporary dormitory and operations facilities for the firefighters displaced from Station 48. Although not suitable as a long-term interim facility, in the face of the immediate need for alternative facilities, the Fire Training Facility provided the most readily adaptable space to house the firefighters under these exigent circumstances. The facilities are not, however, on par with those typically provided for SFFD staff, and the Fire Training Facility does not have any covered space where the fire apparatuses assigned to Station 48 can be protected from the elements.

Letter to Director Nuru
Re: Emergency Declaration
October 7, 2014

SFFD, working with the Department of Public Works ("Public Works") and the Treasure Island Development Authority ("TIDA"), has determined that the best solution for providing an interim fire facility to serve the islands for the next ten years will be to procure and install prefabricated and modular structures. SFFD and Public Works have inspected similar installations in San Mateo and Novato and have developed program requirements for the specification of the structures to be provided. The final value of such work is unknown at this point and will most definitely exceed $250,000.

As the Treasure Island Director and in order to safeguard the lives and property of the citizens of San Francisco, I am requesting that Public Works declare an emergency pursuant to San Francisco Administrative Code Section 6.60, and request Public Works move with all expedience to procure and install interim structures to house fire operations on Treasure Island, improving the living and working conditions of the firefighters who protect the residents, commercial tenants, and visitors to Treasure Island, and providing shelter for the critical fire apparatuses assigned to Station 48.

Yours truly,

Robert Beck

Bob Beck, Director
Treasure Island Development Authority
One Avenue of the Palms, Suite 241
San Francisco, CA 94103

Dear Bob:

On behalf of the San Francisco County Transportation Authority I want to thank you and your staff for your collaboration on the closure of the Folsom Ramp from westbound I-80 which took place on Tuesday, September 23, 2014. The cooperation between key City and County of San Francisco departments, California Department of Transportation, business organizations, community groups, media and our project team resulted in a seamless transition for vehicles entering San Francisco via this vital traffic portal.

Once completed, the $3.5 million Folsom Street Off-Ramp Realignment Project will create a new roadway configuration that will facilitate an improved pedestrian-oriented gateway into this segment of the bustling Transbay District neighborhood. The project will reconstruct the off-ramp terminus to better balance the needs of pedestrians, bicyclists, vehicular traffic, and transit, as well as facilitate infill development adjacent to the ramp. In addition, the project will provide a new traffic signal at the base of the off-ramp intersection, allowing pedestrians to enjoy comfortable access on both sides of Fremont Street.

The Transportation Authority values our partnership with the Treasure Island Development Authority and we look forward to working with you in the future as we continue to focus our efforts on long-range transportation planning for the city and funding improvements for San Francisco's roadway and public transportation networks.

Sincerely,

Tilly Chang

Dear Peter,

I'm proud and humbled to tell you the 2015 Good Food Awards has named Lev's Original Kombucha as a finalist for Best Kombucha.

A panel of 180 chefs, food luminaries, and food writers judged contestants for taste, authenticity, environmental practices, sustainability, and responsible production. It feels good to be recognized for my dedication to brewing the best kombucha on earth and sharing it with you.

Alice Waters will be announcing the winners on January 8th, 2015 at the Palace of Fine Arts in San Francisco.

Thank you for your support of Lev's Original Kombucha.

NOTICE OF PLANNED NATURAL GAS SERVICE INTERRUPTION

PUC will be installing new equipment and/or performing maintenance in your area. This will help us ensure reliable service to our customers. In order to safely perform the work, we will be temporarily interrupting your natural gas service. Although we will do our best to minimize the length of the service interruption, please be prepared to be without service on the following date (weather permitting) and for the estimated time indicated:

Date: Thursday 10/30/14

Time: 8:30am-1:00pm

AFFECTED SERVICE AREAS:

All Units, All Buildings on Northpoint Drive

It is important to note the following:

- If you are a landlord with tenant(s) in the area mentioned above and the SFPUC bill is in your name, it is your responsibility to notify the tenant(s) of the planned service interruption.
- Unsafe weather conditions or an unforeseen emergency will force us to cancel the work at the last minute, and we will be unable to notify you of the cancellation. However, we will notify you of the rescheduled date and time.

We apologize for the inconvenience and thank you for your patience.

Shelter Fundamentals: Monday, November 3, 2014

Training on setting up, running and closing a disaster shelter

Purpose

The purpose of this free class is to prepare you with the essential information needed to open and operate a community shelter. Participate as an individual or bring your entire group and learn as a team and be ready to help your community when a major disaster occurs.

Workshop Objectives

- Understand the process to open, organize, operate, and close a shelter.
- Learn how to register people into a shelter and make referrals for additional services, as needed.
- Practice how to set-up a welcoming reception and registration area.
- Set up and monitor a dormitory environment that ensures resident safety and comfort.
- Understand how to set up food distribution areas and monitor consumption to ensure that residents' dietary needs are met.

Who Should Attend?

All interested in helping their community in providing shelter to people left without a home during a major disaster. Individuals who have had previous shelter training should consider taking this class as a refresher.

When:

Monday, November 3, 2014

9:30 a.m.–10:00 a.m. Registration and Networking

10:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m. Class & Simulation (with lunch break)

Attendees will receive a Shelter Fundamentals Guide with a Shelter Operations Checklist

Where:

Treasure Island Environmental Program Drop-In Q&A Session for Residents

Hosted by: TIDA & US Navy

Wednesday
October 22nd
6:30 pm - 7:30 pm

Treasure Island,
Ship Shape
Community Center
850 Avenue I btw 9th Street and 11th Street

On Wednesday, October 22nd, the Navy and TIDA invite Treasure Island residents to the Ship Shape Community Center to ask questions and get additional information on the Navy's environmental remediation programs.

There will not be a formal presentation—the intention is to provide an informal environment where residents can pose questions and receive direct answers. Poster boards and handouts will be available.

Residents will also be able to get additional information and register for the Navy Bus Tour of Treasure Island cleanup sites scheduled for November 8th.

This meeting will not replace the Navy Restoration Advisory Board (RAB) meeting which will be held the prior evening at the Casa de la Vista, but is intended to provide the opportunity for residents to ask additional questions on topics that may not be on the RAB agenda.

Crime Report for October 2014

Calls for service are trending up (45 in October) over the past three months. This pattern matches last year's calls and is typical at this time of year. The majority of calls (73%) were associated with the non-residential area while 23% were in the residential areas.

■ Non-residential ■ Residential

Auto Boost/Strap calls are trending up (14 in October), and there were 4 incidents of Sexual Assaults recorded. The majority of both occurred in the non-residential area and are associated with either special events or commercial locations.

A concern was raised about a possible string of strong armed burglaries. We were not able to validate this from the calls for service records at crimemapping.com, the SFPD or with PPS. However, there were two incidents of Strong Armed Robbery which were listed in the non-residential areas.

October Calls for Service (Chart 1)

Aug - Oct 2014 Calls for Service (Chart 2)

	Aug.	Sept.	Oct.	Trending
Aggr. Assault/ADW	3
Assault/Battery		8	3	↓
Auto Boos/Strap	7	12	14	↑↑↑
Burglary	9	6	2	↓
Drunk Driving	1	3
Fraud		2
Grand Theft	1		1
Ind Exposure
Intox. Person			1
Noise Nuisance	8	5	8	↑
Person w/Knife
Person w/Gun	1		1
Petty Theft	1	2	4	↑
Purse Snatch
Robbery		1	1
Sexual Assault			4	↑↑↑
Stabbing/Cutting
Stolen Vehicle	1	2	4	↑
Strong Arm Robbery			2
Vandalism	2	4		↓
Total	34	45	45	↑

On occasion, Crimemapping.com experiences a problem importing all the data. We will keep an eye on the statistics and issue a notice if we are able to corroborate the concern.

On a positive note, there was a decrease in Burglaries (2 reported), Assault/Battery (4) calls, and Vandalism (0).

The holidays are here and present their own opportunities for crime. Be sure to keep doors, windows locked, and gates locked, don't leave expensive items in plane view, and as always - look out for each other.

Neighborhood Prosecutor

Dear Southern Community,

My name is Marisa Rodríguez, and I am the Neighborhood Prosecutor assigned to the Southern police district (including Treasure Island - ed.). I want to take this opportunity to share a little bit about myself and the role I play in your community.

A San Francisco native, I am honored to live and work in the community that I serve, the Southern district. Through my work as a Neighborhood Prosecutor, I am passionate about using the tools from the District Attorney's Office to help address the serious issues that arise in the context of victim's advocacy, restorative justice, and improving the quality of life for San Francisco residents.

The goal of the Neighborhood Prosecutor is to increase communication, collaboration, and cohesion between the District Attorney's Office, and

- 1)The communities we serve (residential and business)
- 2) Our criminal justice partners.
- 3)The public and non-profit organizations in our communities.

We achieve this goal by supporting our assigned police stations and through community engagement.

Support Southern Police Station: As your Neighborhood Prosecutor, I support Captain Roualdes and his team of dedicated police officers. I work with the officers to help address chronic offenders and quality of life issues. I am a resource for the station's investigations team and serve as a liaison to the District Attorney's Office. On occasion, I also personally handle cases requiring special attention in light of their impact on the neighborhood.

Community Engagement: Enforcement alone is not enough to solve problems in the community. As your Neighborhood Prosecutor, I hope to work closely with Southern station to help develop community driven programs and solutions, and collaborate with our other city partners to further safety and community cohesion.

If there is a community event or meeting you would like me to attend, please feel free to contact me at Marisa.Rodriguez@sfgov.org. I am eager to learn about the great work the community is already doing. I look forward to meeting you and working together to continue making the Southern District a safe and healthy community for all of its residents, business owners, community members and visitors to enjoy.

Best Regards - Marisa Rodriguez

Significant District Incidents

Marijuana Furnishing, Suspect Arrested Jones St. and Market St., 09.18.2014

At about 3:30pm, Plain Clothes Officers on patrol responded to the area of Market Street at Jones Street for the purpose of street level drug enforcement. Officers observed a suspect loitering in the area which matched a previous description of someone selling drugs on the street.

At about 3:45hrs, the Officers observed another man arrive and have a brief conversation with the suspect. The Officers then observed the suspect turn toward a parked vehicle and remove a piece of clear plastic from inside of his underwear. The suspect then appeared to drop the small object into the hand of the other man. Simultaneously, the man gave the suspect a small piece of folded paper, suspected US Currency. The suspect received the suspected US Currency and continued to loiter mid block on Jones Street.

Based on the observed sale of illegal marijuana, in violation of 11360(a) HS — Sales of Marijuana, the Officers notified uniformed Officers who then proceeded to locate and detain the man who bought the suspected marijuana. The uniformed Officers confirmed that he was in possession of marijuana. Uniformed Officers then located and detained the suspect and found him in possession of a large bag of marijuana. The suspect was placed under arrest for Sales of Marijuana and Possession of Marijuana for Sales. The man who bought the Marijuana was cited for possession of marijuana.

The suspect was found to have a history for selling drugs in the area so a request to have a Stay Aways Order was placed on him was made.

Probation violation, Arrest for narcotics possession 500 block 6th St., 09.29.2014

At 10:00 in the morning, Officers were called to the Adult Probation Department regarding a man who went into the Adult Probation Department for a scheduled check in and was found to be in possession of narcotics. The Officers seized the suspected narcotics and conducted testing. The substances tested positive for marijuana and methamphetamine. The suspected was then arrested for probation violation on possession of narcotics.

Possession of Stolen Property, Warrant Arrest
900 Block of Market St, 09.25.2014

Officers on patrol observed a man inside a MUNI bus shelter with liquor bottles. The man was attempting to break open the bottles which still had the store anti-theft caps on. Given that stores typically remove the caps from the bottles of alcohol after they are purchased, Officers had reason to believe that the suspect stole the items.

The Officers conducted a records check on the suspect and found that he had a warrant for his arrest for a parole violation. The Officers seized six liquor bottles and some damaged anti-theft caps which the suspect managed to defeat. The suspect was arrested and the items were booked as evidence.

Warrant Arrest
1 Saint Francis Place, 09.30.2014

At about midnight, Officers were dispatched to a parking garage located at 1 Saint Francis Place, regarding a trespasser. Upon arriving at the scene, the Officers met an on duty security guard at that location who was attempting to physically detain a trespasser. The security guard told the officers that upon instructing the trespasser to vacate the premises, the trespasser became aggressive and refused to leave. The trespasser then became combative and caused minor injuries (scratches to the face) to the security guard as he notified the police.

The Officers contacted Medics to arrive on scene and take care of the injured security guard then arrested the trespasser. Officers also found that the trespasser had seven outstanding warrants for his arrest.

Vehicle Burglary, Suspect Arrested
Unit Block of Harriet St, 09.21.2014

At 7:00pm while returning to the station from the Westfield Mall, Officers observed suspicious activity which caught their attention in front of 88 Harriet Street. As the Officers approached the location in their vehicle, they observed what appeared to be an auto boost in progress. The Officers observed the front left driver's side window of a parked Honda Civic shattered and a male subject leaning inside the vehicle window. The Officers observed the suspect leaning into the smashed vehicle window.

The suspect removed his torso from the vehicle and appeared surprised at the Officers' presence. The Officers ordered the suspect to lie on the ground and subsequently placed handcuffs on him.

Incident to arrest, the Officers conducted a search of the suspect, finding a window punch device in his right jacket pocket. The large tool contained plastic grips similar to the size of "brass knuckles".

During a later interview, the suspect indicated he knew his actions were illegal. A criminal history check revealed that the suspect had several previous convictions for burglary and other theft related crimes in Los Angeles and Oakland. Based upon the Officers observations of the suspect, the boosted vehicle, the window punch found in his jacket pocket, the gloves worn by the suspect, his statement, and prior criminal history; the suspect was charged with 459 – burglary and arrested.

Are you someone who is interested in disaster preparedness and wants to help out your community while working hand in hand with law enforcement? Then the ALERT program is for you!

SAN FRANCISCO POLICE DEPARTMENT

Auxiliary Law Enforcement Response Team (ALERT)

What is the ALERT Program?

The San Francisco Police Department has developed a volunteer citizen disaster preparedness program. The Auxiliary Law Enforcement Response Team (ALERT) is modeled after and works in partnership with the San Francisco Fire Department's Neighborhood Emergency Response Team (NERT). The ALERT program will train members of the public to assist law enforcement in essential tasks after a major disaster. Such tasks may include: traffic control, foot patrol of business and residential areas, and reporting criminal activity. Volunteers must be at least 16 years of age and live, work, or attend high school in San Francisco.

Three steps to becoming an ALERT volunteer:

1. Complete NERT training and receive certification. To register for NERT training courses please visit www.sfgov.org/sfner
2. Once NERT certified, forward a copy of your NERT ID card to the ALERT program. sfpdalert@sfgov.org
3. After clearing a basic background check the individual is eligible to register for ALERT training.

A Message from SF SAFE:

Watch streets become communities, and neighbors become friends. Watch crime go down, as security goes up. Watch police become partners as you join with them in making your neighborhood a better place to live.

Start a Neighborhood Watch on your block and see all these things happen!

SF SAFE (Safety Awareness for Everyone) will give you the knowledge and tools to create a stronger, more cohesive and resilient community, and teach you how to be prepared and empowered at work, on the streets or sidewalks and in your home.

COMMUNITY BOARDS
Building Community Through Conflict Resolution

Are you having difficulty with someone? A loud neighbor? Disrespectful roommate? Unresponsive landlord? Community Boards' Neighborhood Mediation Program can assist you with quality of life issues (noise, parking, pets, graffiti, maintenance, etc) or relationship conflicts (family members, roommates, landlords, neighbors, etc).

A mediation is a confidential and voluntary meeting where people discuss difficulties they are having with each other assisted by impartial third-parties, our mediators. Our mediators are trained to help people come up with workable and lasting solutions. They don't give advice or make judgments. The goal is to help everyone feel heard, understood and respected.

We offer our services in English, Spanish, Mandarin and Cantonese at low- to no-cost. No one is turned away for lack of funds. Contact Community Boards at (415) 920-3820 x100 or learn more at www.communityboards.org.

New Program from SF SAFE

www.safebikes.org

SF SAFE, in partnership with the San Francisco Police Department has launched a new program called SAFE Bikes. This is a no cost bicycle registry program administered by San Francisco SAFE. Anyone can register their bicycle by going to www.safebikes.org and clicking on the registration icon. SAFE in collaboration with the San Francisco Bicycle Coalition, and several local businesses are undertaking a citywide educational campaign to teach people how to protect themselves against bike theft/burglary by recommending locking strategies and suggesting theft prevention tips.

The registration portion of SAFE Bikes is just beginning and can be a useful tool down the road if people register their bicycle. A Police Officer will be able to identify a registered bicycle on the street by the metallic sticker specifically made for this bicycle registration program. Each person receives a sticker when they register their bicycle. I encourage everyone to go to www.safebikes.org and utilize this free service offered.

Captain's Message

I hope everyone is enjoying the World Series and hopefully the Giants will be back on the winning end tonight. Whatever the outcome tonight, please enjoy the game and be respectful of those around you. Halloween is Friday and rain is expected, so please be careful driving with the wet and slick roads. There will be many revelers out and about so please watch out for them. Please see the attached Halloween Safety tips attached to our newsletter.

The attached photo which was also tweeted out is of Officer's Palladino and Puccinelli who recovered the victim's bike and arrested the suspect within fifteen minutes after she had reported it stolen. The bike was stolen in the Central District and recovered at United Nations Plaza. Great work by members of the Mid market Foot Beat. Have a safe weekend.

Dear Southern Community,

My name is Marisa Rodriguez and I am the Neighborhood Prosecutor assigned to the Southern police district. I want to take this opportunity to share a little bit about myself and the role I play in your community.

A San Francisco native, I am honored to live and work in the community that I serve, the Southern district. Through my work as a Neighborhood Prosecutor, I am passionate about using the tools from the District Attorney's Office to help address the serious issues that arise in the context of victim's advocacy, restorative justice, and improving the quality of life for San Francisco residents.

The goal of the Neighborhood Prosecutor is to increase communication, collaboration and cohesion between the District Attorney's Office, and

- 1) The communities we serve (residential and business);
- 2) Our criminal justice partners; and
- 3) The public and non-profit organizations in our communities.

We achieve this goal by supporting our assigned police stations and through community engagement.

Support Southern Police Station: As your Neighborhood Prosecutor, I support Captain Roulades and his team of dedicated police officers. I work with the officers to help address chronic offenders and quality of life issues. I am a resource for the station's investigations team and serve as a liaison to the District Attorney's Office. On occasion, I also personally handle cases requiring special attention, in light of their impact on the neighborhood.

Community Engagement: Enforcement alone is not enough to solve problems in the community. As your Neighborhood Prosecutor, I hope to work closely with Southern station to help develop community driven programs and solutions, and collaborate with our other city partners to further safety and community cohesion.

If there is a community event or meeting you would like me to attend, please feel free to contact me at Marisa.Rodriguez@sfgov.org. I am eager to learn about the great work the community is already doing. I look forward to meeting you and working together to continue making the Southern District a safe and healthy community for all of its residents, business owners, community members and visitors to enjoy.

Best regards,

Marisa Rodriguez

Significant District Incidents

Burglary, Suspect Arrested 900 block of Brannan St., 10.05.2014

On 10/05/14, at approximately 0517 hours, Officer s responded to a Warehouse on Brannan Street, regarding a call of a silent burglar alarm.

While en route dispatch advised that the activation was coming from the 8th Street entry, the Southwest office area and the West open office area. Dispatch also advised that the alarm company was reporting "banging" noises coming from inside the business. Upon the Officer's arrival to the scene, Officers found that there was a male subject running southbound, away from the building. A second unit of Officers on scene managed to apprehend the suspect as he fled.

Officers also noticed that while attempting to flee the scene, the suspect was carrying a plastic bag which he dropped. Upon searching for the bag, Officers located the bag and found two computer monitors, a computer charger, and a dog collar inside.

After the arrest, the officers ran a records check on the suspect and found that the suspect also had four active traffic warrants for his arrest.

Burglary, Suspect Arrested 300 block 10th St., 10.09.2014

On 10/09/2014 at approximately 0345 hours, Officers driving on the 300 block of 10th Street observed a white male adult and white female adult exit the building carrying numerous packages. The Officers watched the suspects as they walked along the west side of 10th Street toward Folsom Street. The male suspect was carrying a large brown Amazon package, which appeared heavy. The female suspect was carrying four to five boxes, which were stacked on top of each other.

As the Officers turned east onto Folsom Street from 11th Street toward 10th Street, they observed the suspects running north on 10th Street, crossing Folsom Street, against a red light. Upon detaining the suspects for jaywalking, after viewing their identification cards, the Officers observed that the names on the packages did not match the suspects.

Also, while searching the suspects, Officers also found them in possession of burglary type tools.

Given that the suspects were seen exiting a residential building where they did not live with the packages and the names did not match and the tools found, the Officers placed the suspects under arrest for burglary.

Vehicle Burglary, Suspects Arrested
7th St. and Howard St., 10.26.2014

On 10-26-2014, at approximately 2041 hours, Officers responded to Howard Street and 7th Street on a call regarding an auto boost. The suspects were described as two black males, one wearing a brown hoodie, and the other wearing a dark-colored hoodie.

Upon arriving on scene, The officers saw two male adults matching the description of the suspects and detained them for questioning. The officers observed one suspect holding the head of a Star Wars Chewbacca costume and the other holding a first aid kit with a Volkswagen logo, and the body portion of a body of the Chewbacca costume. The Officers also observed a Volkswagen nearby with a shattered back window.

With the assistance of a witness who saw the suspects breaking into the Volkswagen, officers arrested the suspects and contacted the vehicles owner who was able to recover items taken from the car. During the arrest, Burglary type items were found on the suspects.

Store Burglary, Suspect Arrested
200 block of Townsend St., 10.23.2014

On 10/23/2014 at approximately 0314 Hours, Officers responded to Townsend and Lusk Street on a report of a possible burglary in progress. The suspect was described as a black male, 5'10, wearing a Baseball cap and camouflage jacket.

Upon arriving on scene, Officers could see that the front door's glass was shattered. Officers also heard movement coming from inside. After observing the scene, a male matching the suspect's description was detained as he exited a side door. A witness who saw the suspect in the area earlier confirmed that the person detained by Officers was the suspect.

When officers ran a records check on the suspect they found four outstanding felony warrants for his arrest out of San Francisco for burglary.

Marijuana Possession/ Stay away order violation, Suspect Arrested
Jones St/Market St, 10.14.2014

Officers patrolling the area of Market Street and Jones Street interrupted a narcotic transaction.

Officers observed a male engaged in a conversation with another male. The Officers observed the first male display a small bag containing what appeared to be a green leafy substance to the other male, and then place it into his front, left sweater pocket. After stopping to question the suspect, the officers ran a records check which yielded an active stay away order, 150 yards away from Market and Jones Street.

The suspect was placed under arrest for possession of illegal narcotics and violation of a restraining order.

What is the ALERT Program?

The San Francisco Police Department has developed a volunteer citizen disaster preparedness program. The Auxiliary Law Enforcement Response Team (ALERT) is modeled after and works in partnership with the San Francisco Fire Department's Neighborhood Emergency Response Team (NERT). The ALERT program will train members of the public to assist law enforcement in essential tasks after a major disaster. Such tasks may include: traffic control, foot patrol of business and residential areas, and reporting criminal activity. Volunteers must be at least 16 years of age and live, work, or attend high school in San Francisco.

Three steps to becoming an ALERT volunteer:

1. Complete NERT training and receive certification. To register for NERT training courses please visit www.sfgov.org/sfnert
2. Once NERT certified, forward a copy of your NERT ID card to the ALERT program. sfpdalert@sfgov.org
3. After clearing a basic background check the individual is eligible to register for ALERT training.

A Message from Community Boards

COMMUNITY BOARDS
Building Community Through Conflict Resolution

Are you having difficulty with someone? A loud neighbor? Disrespectful roommate? Unresponsive landlord? Community Boards' Neighborhood Mediation Program can assist you with quality of life issues (noise, parking, pets, graffiti, maintenance, etc) or relationship conflicts (family members, roommates, landlords, neighbors, etc).

A mediation is a confidential and voluntary meeting where people discuss difficulties they are having with each other assisted by impartial third-parties, our mediators. Our mediators are trained to help people come up with workable and lasting solutions. They don't give advice or make judgments. The goal is to help everyone feel heard, understood and respected.

We offer our services in English, Spanish, Mandarin and Cantonese at low- to no-cost. No one is turned away for lack of funds. Contact Community Boards at (415) 920-3820 x100 or learn more at www.communityboards.org.

New Program from SF SAFE

www.safebikes.org

SF SAFE, in partnership with the San Francisco Police Department has launched a new program called SAFE Bikes. This is a no cost bicycle registry program administered by San Francisco SAFE. Anyone can register their bicycle by going to www.safebikes.org and clicking on the registration icon. SAFE in collaboration with the San Francisco Bicycle Coalition, and several local businesses are undertaking a citywide educational campaign to teach people how to protect themselves against bike theft/burglary by recommending locking strategies and suggesting theft prevention tips.

The registration portion of SAFE Bikes is just beginning and can be a useful tool down the road if people register their bicycle. A Police Officer will be able to identify a registered bicycle on the street by the metallic sticker specifically made for this bicycle registration program. Each person receives a sticker when they register their bicycle. I encourage everyone to go to www.safebikes.org and utilize this free service offered.

DON'T BE TRICKED, FOLLOW THESE RULES TO HAVE A SAFE & HAPPY HALLOWEEN!

1. When planning your costume, make sure it fits correctly so you won't trip on it. Try painting your face instead of wearing a mask. If you wear a mask, make sure that the eye holes are large enough that you can see well.
2. Never TRICK or TREAT by yourself. Go with an adult and a group of friends. Make sure everyone is together before moving on to the next house.
3. Before you go, map out where you and ⇒ Discuss the rules

(see included
Halloween Safety Tips) with your child.

WALK on sidewalks; before moving on to the next house make sure everyone is together; stick to the pre-approved map; no shortcuts or alleys; NEVER enter someone's home or car; say thank you, etc.

⇒ Play "what if" games with your child.

Pick a situation, for example, your child gets separated from the group of trick-or-treaters, what should they do? Discuss the different choices your child should make so that they remain safe.

⇒ Check candy when children get home. Throw away anything not individually wrapped or suspicious looking.

⇒ For your own home, think about using battery powered lights or light sticks instead of

4. Trick or Treat while it is still light out. In case you are still out when it gets dark, always bring a flashlight. Wear a reflective costume or stickers so that people on the streets and in their cars can see you. Pick well-lighted streets.

5. WALK on the sidewalks. No shortcuts or alleys!

6. Only accept candy at a person's front door. Do not go inside of a house or into someone's car.

7. Have a back-up plan in case you get separated from your group. Carry a cell phone or a walky talky or money for a pay-phone and the number of a trusted adult.

8. Don't eat any candy till you get home. Have an adult check to make sure there are

HALLOWEEN SAFETY TIPS for PARENTS

- ⇒ Help your child plan a costume that is flame retardant, easy to walk in, does not limit or block eyesight and is bright and has reflective stickers or tape. Consider face painting instead of a mask.
- ⇒ Find out if there is a community, church or school Halloween event taking place that could be an alternative to trick-or-treating.
- ⇒ Before Halloween night, map out where you will be trick-or-treating. Children can only go to the houses that are on the map and are well-lighted.
- ⇒ Your child should trick-or-treat with a group. Children must be accompanied by an adult when trick or treating.
- ⇒ Plan to go trick-or-treating while it is still light out. Adults should carry a flashlight to help illuminate the walking path.
- ⇒ Have dinner before trick-or-treating to discourage munching on the streets.

Halloween Safety Message

Trick or Treating should be one of the great adventures a child experiences on Halloween! Regardless of where the trick-or-treating takes place, it should be a fun time without trouble and pain. Following the tips below will help to keep your child safe this Halloween.

Children should:

- Not trick or treat without parents.
- Cross streets only at corners.
- Never cross the street between parked cars.
- Carry a flashlight or glow stick and/or wear reflective tape.
- Be aware of motor vehicles that may be turning into or backing out of driveways.
- Never go into a stranger's house or car.

Older children should program an emergency contact in their phone. The ICE ("in case of emergency") followed by the names and phone numbers of those whom you wish to be notified in an emergency. ICE is recognized by emergency medical technicians, firefighters, police and emergency room personnel.

Parents should:

- Walk with their children or make sure children are accompanied by a trusted adult.
- Make sure trick-or-treaters will be safe when visiting your home. Remove lawn decorations and sprinklers, toys and bicycles or anything that might obstruct your walkway. Provide a well-lit outside entrance to your home.
- Keep family pets away from trick-or-treaters.
- Explain to children the difference between tricks and vandalism.
- Instruct children NOT to eat treats until they return home and parents have had a chance to inspect those treats.
- Not leave candles unattended, try votive candles in your jack o lanterns.
- Establish a time that your older teenage children should be home. Let them know how important it is for them to be home by that time.

Costume Safety Tips:

- Costumes, masks, beards and wigs should be flame resistant.
- Costumes should be light, bright and clearly visible to motorists, adding reflective tape can help make your child more visible to motorists.
- Make-up is safer than a mask, which can obscure vision. Test the make-up to make sure your child doesn't have an allergic reaction.
- Avoid oversize costumes and high-heeled shoes that can cause a child to trip.
- Children should carry a flashlight to easily see and be seen.
- Trick-or-treat bags should not be too large; they can obscure vision or cause a child to trip.

Halloween Hazards:

- Sharp or pointed toy weapons.
- Open flames.
- Dangerous roadways.
- Treacherous "treats" - examine all treats for signs of tampering and choking hazards. Children should not eat homemade treats made by strangers.
- Do not allow children to carve pumpkins alone (special pumpkin cutters for kids are available at your local grocery or Halloween store).

Captain's Message

The Southern Station Monthly Community Meeting scheduled for Wednesday November 13, 2014 will be held at the Mendelsohn House at 737 Folsom St. at 6:30pm

Well, Orange October is finally over and the San Francisco Giants brought home another World Series Trophy. It was very unfortunate that some fans turned out to celebrate the Giants win with setting fires in the streets, throwing bottles and shooting fireworks at the police. I want to thank those fans that did come out to celebrate this great win by being responsible and acting like a true baseball fan.

As you are well aware, the department and especially members assigned in the Southern District were very busy during the month of October. I want to thank them all for their hard work and professionalism during this time.

We look forward to the Thanksgiving Holiday and for the shopping season to begin in full swing. Please remember when you are out, to be aware of your surroundings and keep your valuables close to you. Have a great weekend.

Dear Southern Community,

My name is Marisa Rodriguez and I am the Neighborhood Prosecutor assigned to the Southern police district. I want to take this opportunity to share a little bit about myself and the role I play in your community.

A San Francisco native, I am honored to live and work in the community that I serve, the Southern district. Through my work as a Neighborhood Prosecutor, I am passionate about using the tools from the District Attorney's Office to help address the serious issues that arise in the context of victim's advocacy, restorative justice, and improving the quality of life for San Francisco residents.

The goal of the Neighborhood Prosecutor is to increase communication, collaboration and cohesion between the District Attorney's Office, and

- 1) The communities we serve (residential and business);
- 2) Our criminal justice partners; and
- 3) The public and non-profit organizations in our communities.

We achieve this goal by supporting our assigned police stations and through community engagement.

Support Southern Police Station: As your Neighborhood Prosecutor, I support Captain Roualdes and his team of dedicated police officers. I work with the officers to help address chronic offenders and quality of life issues. I am a resource for the station's investigations team and serve as a liaison to the District Attorney's Office. On occasion, I also personally handle cases requiring special attention, in light of their impact on the neighborhood.

Community Engagement: Enforcement alone is not enough to solve problems in the community. As your Neighborhood Prosecutor, I hope to work closely with Southern station to help develop community driven programs and solutions, and collaborate with our other city partners to further safety and community cohesion.

If there is a community event or meeting you would like me to attend, please feel free to contact me at Marisa.Rodriguez@sfgov.org. I am eager to learn about the great work the community is already doing, I look forward to meeting you and working together to continue making the Southern District a safe and healthy community for all of its residents, business owners, community members and visitors to enjoy.

Best regards,

Marisa Rodriguez

Community Boards' Neighborhood Mediation Program can assist you with quality of life issues (noise, parking, pets, graffiti, maintenance, etc) or relationship conflicts (family members, roommates, landlords, neighbors, etc).

A mediation is a confidential and voluntary meeting where people discuss difficulties they are having with each other assisted by impartial third-parties, our mediators. Our mediators are trained to help people come up with workable and lasting solutions. They don't give advice or make judgments. The goal is to help everyone feel heard, understood and respected.

We offer our services in English, Spanish, Mandarin and Cantonese at low- to no-cost. No one is turned away for lack of funds. Contact Community Boards at (415) 920-3820 x100 or learn more at www.communityboards.org.

New Program from SF SAFE

www.safebikes.org

SF SAFE, in partnership with the San Francisco Police Department has launched a new program called SAFE Bikes. This is a no cost bicycle registry program administered by San Francisco SAFE. Anyone can register their bicycle by going to www.safebikes.org and clicking on the registration icon. SAFE in collaboration with the San Francisco Bicycle Coalition, and several local businesses are undertaking a citywide educational campaign to teach people how to protect themselves against bike theft/burglary by recommending locking strategies and suggesting theft prevention tips.

The registration portion of SAFE Bikes is just beginning and can be a useful tool down the road if people register their bicycle. A Police Officer will be able to identify a registered bicycle on the street by the metallic sticker specifically made for this bicycle registration program. Each person receives a sticker when they register their bicycle. I encourage everyone to go to www.safebikes.org and utilize this free service offered.

Firefighters still without permanent station after black mold closes Station 48

Related

By David Stevenson

KTVU.com

SAN FRANCISCO — San Francisco Mayor Ed Lee on Monday made a surprise visit to firefighters who've been without a permanent home for almost seven months.

In March, the crew working Station 48 on Treasure Island lost their firehouse due to an infestation of black mold. The facility was built decades ago by the Navy and was severely run down.

"It was pretty bad," San Francisco Fire Department Lt. Steven Williams told KTVU. "When it would rain, it would leak really bad. We'd put out buckets and it was pretty deplorable."

Since then, the firefighters have worked out of a cinderblock training center. All 11 male and female crew members are currently sleeping in a classroom. What was meant to be temporary has tested nerves and morale.

"We've adapted so far," said Williams, "but we can only adapt so long before eventually the morale takes a dive."

Mayor Ed Lee on Monday visited the site and told the firefighters the city will expedite the building of a new $1.5 million firehouse.

"Cut the time hopefully in half of what we usually would do it," Lee told KTVU. "I think our firefighters deserve it."

The announcement came after meetings last week with fire department employee groups who've called for the removal of Fire Chief Joanne Hayes-White over ambulance delays, staffing levels, lawsuits and other issues in the department.

Chief Hayes-White, who showed Mayor Lee the Station 48 facility, said she thinks relations are improving. "I do think by and large the general membership is appreciative and very proud to be a member of the San Francisco Fire Department," said Hayes-White. "Along the way, they know that there's issues that need to be addressed and they look to me addressing them, and that's what I'm doing."

Hayes-White's critics say efforts to build better housing for Station 48 firefighters have dragged on for too long.

"This should've been done in March or April of this year. Again, these conditions were horrid and this should've been addressed as it was happening," said Fire Fighters Local 798 President Tom O'Connor. "You wouldn't do it to someone in public housing, you wouldn't do it to a college student, you shouldn't do it to a firefighter. Nobody should live in a classroom."

City officials say the new temporary firehouse made of modular trailers should be completed by next March. A permanent firehouse is set to start construction in 2018 once the entire island is remodeled.

Firefighters said they'll hold department and city leaders to their promise. "The mayor came here; we heard it right out of the mayor's mouth that they're going to expedite this new facility. So people, the morale is up again."

News: Marines learn to cut through crisis with Urban Search and Rescue Training

I Marine Expeditionary Force

Log

Story by Lance Cpl. Caitlin Bevel

SAN FRANCISCO - Marine firefighters from I Marine Expeditionary Force and personnel from the province of Bohol, Philippines, trained for Urban Search and Rescue with the San Francisco Fire Department at Treasure Island, California, Oct. 10.

The three-part training was part of San Francisco Fleet Week 2014 and focused on skills needed to rescue survivors in the aftermath of an earthquake or major disaster.

"They're moving and lifting heavy objects, learning some basic shoring techniques, and breaching, breaking and coring through concrete structures," said Chief Warrant Officer 3 William Waugaman, a firefighter with I MEF.

Marine firefighters with I Marine Expeditionary Force drill through a reinforced concrete slab for urban search and rescue training with the San Francisco Fire Department at Treasure Island, Calif., Oct. 10, during San Francisco Fleet Week 2014. Interoperability training enables civil-military agencies and personnel to share techniques and procedures, which also gives them the opportunity to gain understanding of the roles, responsibilities and capabilities of each agency.

The Marines involved in the exercise had a lot to take in over the course of the training.

"We, as the Marines, have been tasked by the MEF commander to assist the civil authority in recovery and resilience," said Waugaman. "We are fostering trust and confidence with the San Francisco firefighters, learning their skill set, and becoming familiar with their tools and personnel."

However, the Marines weren't focused on just learning a few new tricks. Throughout fleet week, they are working to build real relationships with their civilian counterparts and the people of San Francisco.

"We want to show the people what we do every day. We're war fighters, but we're also in support of the local authority," said Waugaman. "We need to be able to make those liaisons with a high level of trust so that we can get right into the fight and do the most good we can."

Many of the participants shared Waugaman's sentiment, including representatives from the province of Bohol, Philippines, who are also taking part in the USAR training and fleet week.

"We seized fleet week as an opportunity for us to be active participants in the process, especially for the medical and emergency services training for humanitarian assistance," said Gliceria Doloritos, executive assistant with the Philippine province of Bohol, Office of the Governor. "I have learned a lot about the interoperability between agencies here in the United States working with the fire department and watching the Marines working with other agencies."

The province of Bohol currently has relatively limited interoperability between their civilian and military resources and is using their experiences in San Francisco to expand on what they know.

"This is something that's not necessarily new to us, but we can identify a number of approaches and strategies to really strengthen our way of thinking about working with different agencies in our locality," said Doloritos.

Doloritos explained that one of the things they wanted to learn was how the Marines approach the logistics of moving resources from place to place and then supporting the system and resources already in place.

"We don't have the luxury of logistical resources to move people and materials," said Doloritos. "But what we're more interested in is the way you do things here and how we can redefine these things so they're more acceptable to us in our local environment."

The Philippine representatives accepted the invitation to participate in fleet week partially because of their recent history with disaster and their experience with the American military's approach to humanitarian assistance.

"In my province where we were hit by a 7.2 earthquake, although there was not much visibility of the U.S. Marines, we always felt the support of the United States and their people," said Doloritos.

Doloritos added that one of the greatest assets the Philippines has when trying to recover from a major disaster is a large number of people willing to go to the extreme to help each other, and the more they learn, the more effective those people can be.

"I think we're just fortunate enough to have friends like the people of the United States of America, who are more than willing to support us not just in the aspect of development, but also in humanitarian support," said Doloritos.

Participating in fleet week gave both nations a better understanding of how they can work together in different scenarios and how to support each other, explained Doloritos. He added that they are thankful for the United States' support, the invitation to fleet week, and the opportunity to learn.

"In the overall scale, we're so thankful, not only to the City of San Francisco, the fire department, the police department, the armed forces, the Navy, the Marines, the Coast Guard, but I think we should be more thankful to the whole brave and humble people of the United States of America," said Doloritos.

He said he agreed with the idea of Mayor Ed Lee, the Mayor of San Francisco, that to move into a new project or start something different, we have to start with relationships.

Outkast tops Treasure Island cast on festival's first day

By Will Reisman

JACK PLINKETT/INVISION/AP

Outkast (pictured earlier this month in Austin, Texas) put on a great show Saturday at the Treasure Island Music Festival.

Forget Bogie and Bacall or Jay-Z and Beyonce. The greatest love story in entertainment is Antwan "Big Boi" Patton and Andre Benjamin, aka Andre 3000, the two divergent forces that comprise Outkast, perhaps the greatest hip-hop group of all time.

While Big Boi retains the cool street drawl that defines his southern roots, Andre 3000 embraces a more interplanetary style, opting for platinum blond wigs and gender-ambiguous outfits. Complementing each other like few performers ever, the irrepressible headliners definitely were highlights of day one of the 2014 Treasure Music Island Festival on Saturday.

With six months of touring the festival circuit under their belt, the Atlanta duo have ironed out imperfections of their show, avoiding blips and mistakes that sullied other recent performances (which, to give them credit, were their first appearances together in 10 years.)

Blasting out hits like "B.O.B." "Ms. Jackson," "Aquemini," "Rosa Parks," and more, Outkast kept the audience in rapture during a 90-minute set that closed out the festivities on an unseasonably warm night.

While the hip-hop duo loomed large, they weren't the only memorable performers on opening day, which typically showcases electrotrica, hip-hop and beats-driven musicians, while the second day usually has more rock-oriented groups.

Zedd, a Russian-German DJ who took the main (Bridge) stage before Outkast, unleashed a blistering set of electronic dance music tunes and song remixes, unveiling a light and laser show that illuminated the San Francisco skyline in the distance.

Perhaps the spirit award of the day went to Janelle Monae. The R&B singer was wheeled onstage in a straightjacket, to the delight of the crowd, but her microphone did not work for the first two songs. Yet despite the technical malfunctions, Monae gamely pushed on; by the time her equipment was up to spec, she had her fans earnestly singing along.

Other notable moments on Saturday included Classixx playing on the Tunnel Stage with a blood orange skyline in the background as the sun set behind them — a surreal view that only Treasure Island can offer.

MØ (Denmark chanteuse Karen Marie Ørsted) sported an eye patch — the product of an infection, she assured concertgoers, not a new fashion statement— and slinked her way through a set of sultry, alluring tunes, backed by a three-piece band featuring a guitar player with the best cut-off jean shorts seen at the festival.

The festival was not without its hiccups, and not just the problem with Monae's sound. Getting to and out of the show took much longer than in years past (particularly the brutally slow process of hopping on the shuttle buses following the Outkast performance).

Still, the flow of the lines steadily moved, and organizers dealt well with the crowds. Treasure Island is still a relatively small festival — just 10,000 attendees, compared to some 60,000 at Outside Lands — but with days like Saturday, it's easy to see why it's so revered by those who attend.

Court shuns opponents of big Treasure Island development

By Bob Egelko Updated 3:18 pm, Wednesday, October 22, 2014

A $1.5 billion residential and commercial development on San Francisco's Treasure Island moved closer to construction Wednesday when the state Supreme Court turned aside an appeal of the city's environmental review of the project.

City supervisors approved plans for the former Navy base and adjoining Yerba Buena Island in 2011. The project, scheduled to take 15 to 20 years, includes up to 8,000 homes, 25 percent of them classified as below-market affordable housing, along with commercial and office buildings, 500 hotel rooms, a ferry terminal, and 300 acres of parks, playgrounds and open space.

A group called Citizens for a Sustainable Treasure Island, led by former Supervisor Aaron Peskin, filed a lawsuit claiming San Francisco's environmental study was inadequate. The suit said the study lacked details of street layout and building design and failed to spell out plans to remove the many hazardous materials in the soil, groundwater and existing buildings.

But a state appeals court upheld the study in July. The First District Court of Appeal said the city had examined and reported all available information about the project "while providing for flexibility needed to respond to changing conditions and unforeseen events."

The court also said the Navy is required to remove all toxic substances — including oil, pesticides, asbestos, lead paint and low-level radioactive material — from each parcel before transferring the land to developers. The environmental report details the locations of known hazards and the procedures the city and the developers would use for any further cleanups, the court said.

Opponents appealed the ruling to the state's high court, which unanimously denied review Wednesday.

Citizens for a Sustainable Treasure Island isn't giving up and has asked federal officials to reconsider their environmental review of the project, said Saul Bloom, who also directs the environmental nonprofit Arc Ecology. He said the state court's decision "denied the people of San Francisco an opportunity to be fully informed about this project."

The case is Citizens for a Sustainable Treasure Island vs. San Francisco, S220652.

What the Treasure Island court decision means for the $1.5 billion project's future

Oct 23, 2014, 9:52am PDT Updated: Oct 23, 2014, 3:00pm PDT

Share on Google+ Share on Facebook Share on LinkedIn Share on Twitter Email this articleSaveOrder ReprintsPrintCory WeinbergReporter- San Francisco Business TimesEmail | Twitter | LinkedIn

Treasure Island is one of the city's megaprojects, with the potential to bring thousands of housing units and jobs along with it. It's often cited along with the Hunters Point Shipyard, Parkmerced and the Schlage Lock project as one of the city's developments with the potential to transform a neighborhood.

But the Treasure Island project has been mired in lawsuits — until now.

After the state Supreme Court finally punted Wednesday on a major lawsuit brought against the Treasure Island redevelopment by a group called Citizens for a Sustainable Treasure Island, led by former Supervisor Aaron Peskin.

The lawsuit tried to take down the $1.5 billion commercial and residential development on the grounds that developers and city skimped on adequate environmental reviews. Lower courts rejected that claim earlier, and the legal fight is now quashed (though Peskin told me that opponents are exploring what federal claims they have under the National Environmental Protection Act).

Why did everything seem to be at a standstill? The public Treasure Island Redevelopment Authority accepted developers' plans three years ago, but the environmental lawsuit iced the project.

"It's a testament to what a strange thing a CEQA lawsuit is," said Chris Meany of developer Wilson Meany, referring to the California Environmental Quality Act. "Someone can come who is no-growth and to oppose something can file a lawsuit."

The city still needs to officially acquire the land from the Navy, which will happen by the start of next year now that the Navy has completed environmental cleanup there, Treasure Island director Bob Beck said.

The team of developers – including Wilson Meany and Lennar Urban – then plan to start work on the demolition and infrastructure on the former Navy site by next fall. Once it's fully completed in about two decades, the full site will include 8,000 residential units, 235,000 square feet of retail, public parks and 500 hotel rooms. One-quarter of the housing units will be affordable.

The private developers already have entitlements for the site, but will still need greenlights from the city for each sub-phase of the project. They will submit their application for the first phase by early 2015, said Stephen Proud, vice president of community development at Lennar. "Now, a lot of it is taking things that were conceptual diagrams and drilling down on the detail and communicating with city departments on pieces of detail," Proud said.

Proud added that the project's strict approval process should allay anymore environmental concerns. "Each phase and subphase has to go back to city for approval. It wasn't like they said, 'Here there you go, done.' We have to go back to the city," Proud said.

That first phase will include the site's portion that sits on Yerba Buena Island and the part of Treasure Island that borders Clipper Cove. It will include about 500 housing units and retail space.

"The beautiful marina will be surrounded by the heart of the development," Meany said. "It's been a longer process than it needed to be, but it got to the right place."

Cory covers real estate and economic development.

PALO ALTO, Calif., Nov. 5, 2014 /PRNewswire/iReach/ -- The Cleantech Open (www.cleantechopen.org), the world's largest clean-technology accelerator, announced that Chinese artist Cao Yong's paintings will be featured during an elegant and exclusive Green Carpet VIP Reception and silent auction fundraising dinner in San Francisco on Thursday, November 13, 2014. Yong will unveil his latest work, titled "Peace," at the Gala Fundraising Dinner, which is part of the Cleantech Open Global Forum.

Public registration is now open for the Global Forum, which takes place in San Francisco on November 12-13, 2014.

Yong, a U.S. citizen, travels the world, capturing stories and events of the moment through his famous paintings. Called a Master of Artists by some of his collectors due to his capability of painting so many different styles. Many have also dubbed Yong a Living Master since the quality of his work is compared to the Old Master Artists Picasso, Rembrandt, and Van Gogh. He has painted everything from Tibetan caves to favorite San Francisco destinations, and is well known for his remembrance pieces from American events like September 11th, to the earthquake in Sichuan, China. Yong has been honored around the world, including America's NASA, the White House, Independence Hall, and his art gallery in China, which receives a record-breaking 10,000+ visitors a day.

"Mother nature belongs to all of humanity. It is my hope that my artwork lends a voice to nature and to humanity. We have to collectively and conscientiously stop our destructive encroachment and return serenity to nature. Only peaceful coexistence between mankind and nature surpasses narrow-minded ideologies and is the true salvation for our survival and prosperity. This virtuous circle is our greatest and everlasting contribution to our own existence," said Yong.

Comedian Hal Sparks will emcee at the dinner and Awards Celebration, known as the "Academy Awards of Cleantech." Sparks, an American actor, comedian, musician and television personality, is best known for his contributions to VH1, hosting El's Talk Soup, the role of Michael Novotny on the American television series Queer as Folk, and as Donald Davenport in Disney's Lab Rats.

Rex Northern, executive director of the Cleantech Open, commented: "We recognize that Cao Yong's artwork represents excellence internationally and we are honored that he will be unveiling his latest work at the Cleantech Open Global Forum just weeks before he and his new painting will be honored at the Great Hall of the People's Republic of China in Beijing — the White House of China."

ABOUT THE CLEANTECH OPEN GLOBAL FORUM

The Global Forum Awards Celebration will be the highlight and culmination of a year of global competition. This year, more than 150 American and international cleantech startups are vying for the top honors. The day will start with a champagne toast with all attendees, startups, investors, and government and industry leaders, followed by a keynote that kicks off a morning of technology demonstrations on four stages surrounding the expo area. Attendees can also take in an entrepreneurial speaker panel, an afternoon keynote, final judging on the main stage, alumni testimonials, and cleantech market outlooks from Cleantech Open sponsors.

This year's Global Forum is set in two excellent venues. Day One presentations and judging will be held at the Hilton San Francisco Financial District. On Day Two, the event expo, live presentations and final judging will be showcased at San Francisco's historic Treasure Island Administration Building. This exclusive and elegant event will include a silent auction produced by DOME Entertainment & Consulting in conjunction with the Cleantech Open, in which over 20 of Yong's paintings will be available for viewing and purchase, among other silent auction items.

If you were wondering what happened to that mysterious Google barge that popped up last year off Treasure Island, the Wall Street Journal has unearthed e-mails that indicate officials thought the vessels weren't safe enough for the public, leading Google to abandon the project.

In the trove of e-mails, obtained by the Wall Street Journal through a Freedom of Information Act request, Coast Guard officials outlined concerns about fire hazards presented by having large amounts of fuel and other flammable materials on deck at the same time as a large number of people.

"These vessels will have over 5,000 gallons of fuel on the main deck and a substantial amount of combustible material on board," Robert Gauvin, the Coast Guard's acting chief of commercial vessel compliance, wrote in a March 2013 e-mail to Google's contractor heading up the project, Foss Maritime Co.

Foss Maritime told the Coast Guard that no more than 120 people would be on board at a given time, the Wall Street Journal reported, but Gauvin was unconvinced, saying that, should a fire break out, people would be forced to jump overboard.

"I am unaware of any measures you plan to use to actually limit the number of passengers," Gauvin wrote to Foss Maritime in the same March 2013 e-mail, noting that the company was seeking quick approval. "While I understand there is a sense of urgency, I am concerned that significant work has already been performed without full consent of the Coast Guard."

Google also reportedly offered to treat National Park Service officials, who were involved because the barge would have operated in the Golden Gate National Recreation Area, to a tour of the barge. "They can pick us up in a special Google speed boat," one official wrote in an e-mail.

The project generated quite a bit of buzz when people first took notice of the four-story behemoth made of shipping containers rising off the shore of Treasure Island last year. The company was tight-lipped for months about what the barge would eventually be, with speculation ranging from a Google Glass store to a floating data center to a giant party boat.

Planning documents filed by the barge's shell company owner, By and Large LLC, referred to the vessel as a "studio" and "temporary technology exhibit space."

Google was so dead-set on maintaining secrecy about the project that it required some Coast Guard officials to sign non-disclosure agreements.

By January, the mystery barge had worn out its welcome and state regulators told Treasure Island development officials that, unless the vessel was moved, fines would be levied. The barge was eventually shipped out about 80 miles east to Stockton, where it still sits idle.

"Bender's Whiskey Co. officially launched in 2013 on San Francisco's, Treasure Island in San Francisco California. Born of the collaborative efforts of two passionate individuals with a desire to create a distinctive small batch rye, the brand needed to be as quirky, unexpected and unique as the vision of the company."

"To accomplish this goal, Okay leaned on the company's San Francisco roots and their home on Treasure Island, creating whimsical harbor themed graphics that set it apart behind the bar and on the shelf. The result was a brand that was quickly embraced by the booming cocktail culture of the Bay Area, distribution in both California and Oregon and a sold out first batch, all within 8 months of launch."

Ten million dollars has been approved to design a bike path on the western span of the Bay Bridge, but actually building it will require $400 million. The two-mile path would go from San Francisco to Yerba Buena.

"This $10 million is to get to what is known as the 30 percent design level: A bicycle, pedestrian, and maintenance path on the west span of the Bay Bridge," Toll Authority spokesperson John Goodwin told KGO Radio.

A path on the eastern side of the bridge is already being built, and is expected to be complete by Labor Day, officials said. The western portion is still waiting on receiving complete funding. Cycling advocates would like to see a path that spans the entire bridge.

AGENDA ITEM 6b
Treasure Island Development Authority
City and County of San Francisco
Meeting of November 19, 2014

Subject: Resolution Approving and Authorizing the Execution of a Fourth Amendment to Sublease No. 389 with the Treasure Island Museum Association for Suites 111, 021, 015, and 011 in the Administration Building, Treasure Island, San Francisco, California (Action Item)

Phone 415-274-3365

BACKGROUND

On June 11, 2008, the Treasure Island Development Authority (the "Authority") Board of Directors approved a month-to-month Sublease with the Treasure Island Museum Association, a California non-profit corporation (hereafter referred to as "TIMA") for Parcel A: approximately 160 square feet of space located at the Administration Building, Suite 111; and Parcel B: approximately 736 square feet of storage space located at the Administration Building, Suite 019, One Avenue of the Palms, Treasure Island.

For over seven years, TIMA has worked with the Authority on exhibits and historic programming relating to the history of Treasure and Yerba Buena Islands. The group is comprised of Bay Area residents, former docents and guides at the old Treasure Island Museum, who are committed to the preservation of the history of Treasure Island and advocacy for the establishment of a future museum on Treasure Island.

The term of the Original Sublease expires on November 30, 2014. TIMA is requesting to extend the Term, remove approximately 736 square feet of storage space located in the Administration Building, Suite 019 from the Premises, and add approximately 555 square feet of storage space located in the Administration Building, Suite 021, approximately 840 square feet of storage space located in the Administration Building, Suite 015 and approximately 150 square feet of storage space located in the Administration Building, Suite 011 in order to aid their efforts assisting the Authority, and to allow for a central location for storage of their materials, records and artifacts.

SUBLEASE TERMS AND CONDITIONS

TIMA will sign the Authority's standard form Sublease Amendment document. The salient terms and conditions of the proposed Fourth Amendment include the following:

Premises: Parcel A: approximately One Hundred and Sixty (160) square feet of space located at the Administration Building, Suite 111; Parcel B: approximately Five Hundred and Fifty Five (555) square feet of storage space located in the Administration Building, Suite 021; Parcel C: approximately Eight Hundred and Forty (840) square feet of storage space located in the Administration Building, Suite 015; and Parcel D: approximately One Hundred and Fifty (150) square feet of storage space located in the Administration Building, Suite 011, Treasure Island

Location: Administration Building

Commencement Date: December 1, 2014

Lease Expiration Date: November 30, 2015

Lease Term: month-to-month

Base Rent: The Premises will be provided to the Subtenant at no Base Rent in consideration of the Subtenant's obligation to assume all responsibility for development, maintenance, and repairs to the Premises, and to provide a public benefit to the community by aiding in ongoing historic programming and public outreach in furtherance of the preservation of the history of and historic elements relating to Treasure and Yerba Buena Islands

FINANCIAL IMPACT

Repositioning TIMA's Premises by removing Suite 019 and adding Suites 021, 015 and 011, will enable Project Staff to lease Suite 019 as office space resulting in an annual increase to the Authority's revenue of approximately $12,000.00.

RECOMMENDATION

The Authority Staff recommends that the Authority Board of Directors approve the proposed Fourth Amendment to Sublease with the Treasure Island Museum Association, a California non-profit corporation and authorize the Treasure Island Director or his designee to execute said Amendment for space at the Treasure Island Administration Building on Treasure Island for a month-to-month term and subject to the additional terms and conditions set forth above.

EXHIBIT A – Fourth Amendment to Sublease between the Treasure Island Development Authority and the Treasure Island Museum Association

Prepared by: Richard A. Rovetti, Deputy Director of Real Estate
For: Robert P. Beck, Treasure Island Director

FOURTH AMENDMENT TO SUBLEASE NO. 389

THIS FOURTH AMENDMENT TO SUBLEASE (this "Fourth Amendment"), dated for reference purposes only as of December 1, 2014, is by and between the TREASURE ISLAND DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY, a California non-profit public benefit corporation ("Sublandlord"), and TREASURE ISLAND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION, a California non-profit corporation ("Subtenant").

RECITALS

A. Sublandlord and Subtenant entered into that certain Sublease dated for reference purposes as of December 1, 2010 (the "Original Sublease"), for Parcel A: approximately One Hundred and Sixty (160) square feet of space located at the Administration Building, Suite 111; and Parcel B: approximately Seven Hundred and Thirty Six (736) square feet of storage space located at the Administration Building, Suite 019, One Avenue of the Palms, Treasure Island, San Francisco, California, as more particularly described in the Original Sublease.

B. Sublandlord and Subtenant entered into that certain First Amendment to Sublease dated for reference purposes as of December 1, 2011 (the "First Amendment"), that certain Second Amendment to Sublease dated for reference purposes as of December 1, 2012 (the "Second Amendment"), and that certain Third Amendment to Sublease dated for reference purposes as of December 1, 2013 (the "Third Amendment"), to extend the Term.

C. Sublandlord and Subtenant desire to amend the Sublease to extend the Term, remove approximately Seven Hundred and Thirty Six (736) square feet of storage space located in the Administration Building, Suite 019 from the Premises, and add approximately Five Hundred and Fifty Five (555) square feet of storage space located in the Administration Building, Suite 021, approximately Eight Hundred and Forty (840) square feet of storage space located in the Administration Building, Suite 015 and approximately One Hundred and Fifty (150) square feet of storage space located in the Administration Building, Suite 011, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Fourth Amendment.

D. The Original Sublease as amended by the First Amendment, Second Amendment, Third Amendment, and this Fourth Amendment shall collectively be referred to as the "Sublease". All capitalized terms used herein but not otherwise defined shall have the meaning given to them in the Sublease.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained and for other good and valuable consideration, the Sublandlord and Subtenant hereby amend the Sublease as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. Recitals. The foregoing recitals are true and correct and are incorporated herein by this reference as if fully set forth herein.
2. Effective Date. The effective date of this Fourth Amendment shall be December 1, 2014 (the "Effective Date").

3. Premises. As of the Effective Date, the Premises described in the Basic Sublease Information of the Sublease shall be amended to read as follows:

"Parcel A: approximately One Hundred and Sixty (160) square feet of space located at the Administration Building, Suite 111; Parcel B: approximately Five Hundred and Fifty Five (555) square feet of storage space located in the Administration Building, Suite 021; Parcel C: approximately Eight Hundred and Forty (840) square feet of storage space located in the Administration Building, Suite 015; and Parcel D: approximately One Hundred and Fifty (150) square feet of storage space located in the Administration Building, Suite 011, Treasure Island, San Francisco, California, as more particularly shown on Exhibit B attached hereto and made a part hereof. The Initial Premises and the Additional Premises are collectively referred to in this Sublease as the "Premises"."

All references to "Premises" and "Exhibit B" in the Sublease shall mean the Premises described herein and shown on the amended Exhibit B attached to this First Amendment.

4. Term. As of the Effective Date, the Term described in the Basic Sublease Information of the Sublease shall be amended to read as follows:

"Commencement date: December 1, 2010
Expiration date: November 30, 2015

Notwithstanding anything in this Sublease to the contrary, either Sublandlord or Subtenant, in its sole discretion, may terminate this Sublease for any reason upon delivery of not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the other party."

5. Criminal History in Hiring and Employment Decisions. As of the Effective Date, Section 22.24 is hereby added to the Sublease, as follows:

"(a) Unless exempt, Subtenant agrees to comply with and be bound by all of the provisions of San Francisco Administrative Code Chapter 12T (Criminal History in Hiring and Employment Decisions; "Chapter 12 T"), which are hereby incorporated as may be amended from time to time, with respect to applicants and employees of Subtenant who would be or are performing work at the Premises.

(b) Subtenant shall incorporate by reference the provisions of Chapter 12T in all subleases of some or all of the Premises, and shall require all subsubtenants to comply with such provisions. Subtenant's failure to comply with the obligations in this subsection shall constitute a material breach of this Lease.

(c) Subtenant and subsubtenants shall not inquire about, require disclosure of, or if such information is received base an Adverse Action on an applicant's or potential applicant for employment, or employee's: (1) Arrest not leading to a Conviction, unless the Arrest is undergoing an active pending criminal investigation or trial that has not yet been resolved; (2) participation in or completion of a diversion or a deferral of judgment program; (3) a Conviction that has been judicially dismissed, expunged, voided, invalidated, or otherwise rendered inoperative; (4) a Conviction or any other adjudication in the juvenile justice system; (5) a Conviction that is more than seven years old, from the date of sentencing; or (6) information pertaining to an offense other than a felony or misdemeanor, such as an infraction.

(d) Subtenant and subsubtenants shall not inquire about or require applicants, potential applicants for employment, or employees to disclose on any employment application the facts or details of any conviction history, unresolved arrest, or any matter identified in subsection (c) above. Subtenant and subsubtenants shall not require such disclosure or make such inquiry until either after the first live interview with the person, or after a conditional offer of employment.

(e) Subtenant and subsubtenants shall state in all solicitations or advertisements for employees that are reasonably likely to reach persons who are reasonably likely to seek employment with Subtenant or subsubtenant at the Premises, that the Subtenant or subsubtenant will consider for employment qualified applicants with criminal histories in a manner consistent with the requirements of Chapter 12T.

(f) Subtenant and subsubtenants shall post the notice prepared by the Office of Labor Standards Enforcement ("OLSE"), available on OLSE's website, in a conspicuous place at the Premises and at other workplaces within San Francisco where interviews for job opportunities at the Premises occur. The notice shall be posted in English, Spanish, Chinese, and any language spoken by at least 5% of the employees at the Premises or other workplace at which it is posted.

(g) Subtenant and subsubtenants understand and agree that upon any failure to comply with the requirements of Chapter 12T, the City shall have the right to pursue any rights or remedies available under Chapter 12T or this Lease, including but not limited to a penalty of $50 for a second violation and $100 for a subsequent violation for each employee, applicant or other person as to whom a violation occurred or continued, termination or suspension in whole or in part of this Lease.

(h) If Subtenant has any questions about the applicability of Chapter 12T, it may contact the City's Real Estate Division for additional information. City's Real Estate Division may consult with the Director of the City's Office of Contract Administration who may also grant a waiver, as set forth in Section 12T.8."

6. Local Hiring Requirements for Subtenant Alterations and Improvements. As of the Effective Date, Section 22.25 is hereby added to the Sublease, as follows:

"Subtenant Alterations and Improvements are subject to the San Francisco Local Hiring Policy for Construction ("Local Hiring Policy") (San Francisco Administrative Code §6.22(G)) unless the subtenant improvements are undertaken and contracted for by Subtenant and are estimated to cost less than $750,000 per building permit; or meet any of the other exemptions in San Francisco Administrative Code Section 6.22(G). Accordingly, Subtenant, as a condition of this Lease, agrees that, unless subject to an exemption or conditional waiver, Subtenant shall comply with the obligations in San Francisco Administrative Code Section 6.22(G), and shall require Subtenant's subsubtenants to comply with those obligations to the extent applicable. The requirements are summarized below. Before starting any Subtenant Improvement Work, Subtenant shall contact the City's Office of Economic Workforce and Development ("OEWD") to verify the Local Hiring Policy requirements that apply to the Subtenant Improvement Work, and Subtenant shall comply with all such requirements. Subtenant's failure to comply with the obligations in this subsection shall constitute a material breach of this Lease and may subject

Subtenant and its subsubtenants to the consequences of noncompliance specified in the Local Hiring Policy, including but not limited to penalties.

(1) For each contractor and subcontractor performing subtenant improvements in amounts exceeding the Threshold Amount for a Covered Project, Subtenant and its subsubtenants shall comply with the applicable mandatory participation levels for Project Work Hours performed by Local Residents, Disadvantaged Workers, and Apprentices set forth in Administrative Code §6.22(G)(4).

(2) For Covered Projects estimated to cost more than $1,000,000, prior to commencement of any work subject to the Local Hiring Policy, Subtenant and its subsubtenants shall prepare and submit to Port and the City's Office of Economic and Workforce Development (OEWD) for approval a "local hire plan" for the project in accordance with Administrative Code §6.22(G)(6).

(3) Subtenant and its subsubtenants shall comply with applicable recordkeeping and reporting requirements and shall cooperate in City inspections and audits for compliance with the Local Hiring Policy, including allowing access to employees of its contractors and subcontractors and other witnesses at the Premises.

(4) Subtenant agrees that (i) Subtenant shall comply with all applicable requirements of the Local Hiring Policy; (ii) the provisions of the Local Hiring Policy are reasonable and achievable by Subtenant and its subsubtenants; and (iii) Subtenant and its subsubtenants have had a full and fair opportunity to review and understand the terms of the Local Hiring Policy."

7. Counterparts. This Fourth Amendment may be executed in counterparts with the same force and effect as if the parties had executed one instrument, and each such counterpart shall constitute an original hereof.

8. Full Force and Effect. Except as specifically amended herein, the terms and conditions of the Sublease shall remain in full force and effect.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Sublandlord and Subtenant have executed this Fourth Amendment to Sublease at San Francisco, California, as of the date first above written.

[Sublease with Treasure Island Museum Association]

Resolution Approving and Authorizing the Execution of a Fourth Amendment to Sublease No. 389 with the Treasure Island Museum Association for Suites 111, 021, 015, and 011 in the Administration Building, Treasure Island, San Francisco, California.

WHEREAS, Former Naval Station Treasure Island is a military base located on Treasure Island and Yerba Buena Island (together, the "Base"), which is currently owned by the United States of America, acting by and through the Department of the Navy; and,

WHEREAS, The Base was selected for closure and disposition by the Base Realignment and Closure Commission in 1993, acting under Public Law 101-510, and its subsequent amendments; and,

WHEREAS, Under the Treasure Island Conversion Act of 1997, which amended Section 33492.5 of the California Health and Safety Code and added Section 2.1 to Chapter 1333 of the Statutes of 1968 (the "Act"), the California Legislature (i) designated the Authority as a redevelopment agency under California redevelopment law with authority over the Base upon approval of the City's Board of Supervisors, and (ii) with respect to those portions of the Base which are subject to Tidelands Trust, vested in the Authority the authority to administer the public trust for commerce, navigation and fisheries as to such property; and,

WHEREAS, The Board of Supervisors approved the designation of the Authority as a redevelopment agency for Treasure Island in 1997; and,

WHEREAS, On January 24, 2012, the Board of Supervisors rescinded designation of the Authority as the redevelopment agency for Treasure Island under California Community Redevelopment Law in Resolution No. 11-12; and that such rescission does not affect Authority's status as the Local Reuse Authority for Treasure Island or the Tidelands Trust trustee for the portions of Treasure Island subject to the Tidelands Trust, or any of the other powers or authority; and,

1 WHEREAS, On June 11, 2008, the Authority Board of Directors approved a month-to-
2 month Sublease with the Treasure Island Museum Association, a California non-profit
3 corporation (hereafter referred to as "TIMA") for Parcel A: approximately 160 square feet of 4 space located at the Administration Building, Suite 111; and Parcel B: approximately 736

AGENDA ITEM 8
Treasure Island Development Authority
City and County of San Francisco
Meeting of November 19, 2014

Subject: Resolution Approving and Authorizing Execution of a First Amendment to Sublease No. 809 with the Treasure Island Homeless Development Initiative, a California nonprofit corporation, Toolworks, a California nonprofit corporation, and SOL ROUGE, LLC., a California limited liability company, to include the Casa de la Vista and Chapel to the Premises for Special Events.

Contact: Richard A. Rovetti, Deputy Director of Real Estate

Phone: 415-274-3365

BACKGROUND

On March 12, 2014, the Treasure Island Development Authority (the "Authority") Board of Directors approved Sublease No. 809 between the Treasure Island Homeless Development Initiative ("TIHDI"), Toolworks ("Toolworks"), and SOL ROUGE, LLC. ("SOL ROUGE"), (hereafter referred to as the "Collaborative") to market and manage special events conducted in the Administration Building commencing April 1, 2014 with monthly Base Rent of $10,000. Over the past 7 months, the Collaborative has successfully provided 16 employment and job training opportunities to formerly homeless and economically disadvantaged San Franciscans. Some of the hires have led to permanent employment within the catering and event management industry.

On November 26, 1996, the US Department of Housing and Urban Development approved the Base Closure Homeless Assistance Agreement and Option to Lease Real Property ("Homeless Assistance Agreement") between the City & County of San Francisco (the "City") as the Local Reuse Authority for Treasure Island and TIHDI. The Homeless Assistance Agreement was drafted as an element of the City's election to comply with the conditions of the Base Closure, Community Redevelopment and Homeless Assistance Act of 1994, which requires the Local Reuse Authority to propose a plan for using Base resources to assist homeless persons in the City. The Authority is the Local Reuse Authority.

In 2011, the Authority and TIHDI executed the Amended and Restated Base Closure Homeless Assistance Agreement ("Amended Homeless Assistance Agreement"). The Board of Supervisors approved this agreement in Resolution No. 243-11. Within the Amended Homeless Assistance Agreement is the Jobs and Equal Opportunity Program ("JEOP") which describes job training and employment opportunities for TIHDI's member organizations for formerly homeless and economically disadvantaged San Franciscans. Sections 6 and 7 of the JEOP identifies specific opportunities for TIHDI member organizations who operate social enterprises to be given the Right of First Offer ("ROFO") for economic development opportunities including catering and temporary property management services. These services cannot be bid out outside TIHDI until the good faith process outlined in the ROFO process has been satisfied.

Under the proposed First Amendment, the Collaborative is requesting to amend the Original Sublease to extend the Term, expand the initial Premises to include Casa de la Vista and Chapel, and to increase the Base Rent to $20,000 per month from December 1, 2014 through June 30, 2015, and $25,000 per month commencing July 1, 2014.

AMENDMENT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Collaborative will sign the Authority's standard form Amendment document. The salient terms and conditions of the proposed First Amendment include the following:

Premises:	Parcel A: Lobby and Mezzanine areas of the Administration Building; Parcel B: Casa de la Vista; and Parcel C: The Chapel, Treasure Island
Location:	Treasure Island
Effective Date:	December 1, 2014
Lease Expiration Date:	November 30, 2015
Lease Term:	Month-to-Month
Base Rent:	Commencing December 1, 2014 and ending June 30, 2015, Monthly Base Rent shall be: Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) per month. Commencing July 1, 2015, Monthly Base Rent shall be: Twenty Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) per month.
Use:	Marketing and managing of the Premises for special events only and for no other purpose. Subtenant will be solely responsible for special event management and shall have the right to provide special event services at the Premises.
Security Deposit:	Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00)

FINANCIAL IMPACT

The Amendment will provide the Authority funding consistent with budgeted revenues projected for FY 2014-2015.

RECOMMENDATION

The Authority Staff recommends that the Authority Board of Directors approve the proposed First Amendment to Sublease No. 809 with the Treasure Island Homeless Development Initiative, Toolworks, and SOL ROUGE, LLC., to include Casa de la Vista and Chapel to the Premises and authorize the Treasure Island Director or his designee to execute said Amendment for the rental of the Lobby and Mezzanine areas of the Administration Building, Casa de la Vista and Chapel, Treasure Island, for a month-to-month term, and subject to the additional terms and conditions set forth above.

EXHIBIT A – First Amendment to Sublease No. 809 between the Treasure Island Development Authority and the Treasure Island Homeless Development Initiative, Toolworks, and Sol Rouge

Prepared by: Richard A. Rovetti, Deputy Director of Real Estate
For: Robert P. Beck, Treasure Island Director

FIRST AMENDMENT TO SUBLEASE NO. 813

THIS FIRST AMENDMENT TO SUBLEASE (this "First Amendment"), dated for reference purposes only as of December 1, 2014, is by and between the TREASURE ISLAND DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY, a California non-profit public benefit corporation ("Sublandlord"), and THE COLLABORATIVE: TREASURE ISLAND HOMELESS DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVE, a California nonprofit corporation, TOOLWORKS, a California nonprofit corporation, and SOL ROUGE, LLC., a California limited liability company ("Subtenant").

RECITALS

A. Sublandlord and Subtenant entered into that certain Sublease dated for reference purposes as of April 1, 2014 (the "Original Sublease"), for the use of the Lobby and Mezzanine areas of the Administration Building, Treasure Island, San Francisco, California, as more particularly described in the Original Sublease. The term of the Original Sublease expires on November 30, 2014.

B. Sublandlord and Subtenant desire to amend the Original Sublease to extend the Term, expand the Initial Premises to include the Casa de la Vista and the Chapel, Treasure Island, San Francisco, California (the "Additional Premises"), and to increase the Base Rent on the terms and conditions set forth in this First Amendment.

C. The Original Sublease and this First Amendment shall collectively be referred to as the "Sublease". All capitalized terms used herein but not otherwise defined shall have the meaning given to them in the Sublease.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained and for other good and valuable consideration, the Sublandlord and Subtenant hereby amend the Sublease as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. Recitals. The foregoing recitals are true and correct and are incorporated herein by this reference as if fully set forth herein.

2. Effective Date. The effective date of this First Amendment shall be December 1, 2015 (the "Effective Date").

3. Premises. As of the Effective Date, the Premises described in the Basic Sublease Information of the Sublease shall be amended to read as follows:

"Parcel A: Lobby and Mezzanine areas of the Administration Building; Parcel B: Casa de la Vista; and Parcel C: The Chapel, Treasure Island, San Francisco, California, as more particularly shown on Exhibit B attached hereto and made a part hereof. The Initial Premises and the Additional Premises are collectively referred to in this Sublease as the "Premises"."

All references to "Premises" and "Exhibit B" in the Sublease shall mean the Premises described herein and shown on the amended Exhibit B attached to this First Amendment.

4. Term. As of the Effective Date, the Term described in the Basic Sublease Information of the Sublease shall be amended to read as follows:

"Commencement date: June 1, 2014
Expiration date: November 30, 2015

Notwithstanding anything in this Sublease to the contrary, either Sublandlord or Subtenant, in its sole discretion, may terminate this Sublease for any reason upon delivery of not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the other party."

5. Base Rent. As of the Effective Date, the Base Rent described in the Basic Sublease Information of the Sublease shall be amended to read as follows:

"Commencing December 1, 2014 and ending June 30, 2015, Monthly Base Rent shall be: Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) per month.

Commencing July 1, 2015, Monthly Base Rent shall be: Twenty Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) per month."

6. Criminal History in Hiring and Employment Decisions. As of the Effective Date, Section 22.24 is hereby added to the Sublease, as follows:

(a) Unless exempt, Subtenant agrees to comply with and be bound by all of the provisions of San Francisco Administrative Code Chapter 12T (Criminal History in Hiring and Employment Decisions; "Chapter 12 T"), which are hereby incorporated as may be amended from time to time, with respect to applicants and employees of Subtenant who would be or are performing work at the Premises.

(b) Subtenant shall incorporate by reference the provisions of Chapter 12T in all subleases of some or all of the Premises, and shall require all subsubtenants to comply with such provisions. Subtenant's failure to comply with the obligations in this subsection shall constitute a material breach of this Lease.

(c) Subtenant and subsubtenants shall not inquire about, require disclosure of, or if such information is received base an Adverse Action on an applicant's or potential applicant for employment, or employee's: (1) Arrest not leading to a Conviction, unless the Arrest is undergoing an active pending criminal investigation or trial that has not yet been resolved; (2) participation in or completion of a diversion or a deferral of judgment program; (3) a Conviction that has been judicially dismissed, expunged, voided, invalidated, or otherwise rendered inoperative; (4) a Conviction or any other adjudication in the juvenile justice system; (5) a Conviction that is more than seven years old, from the date of sentencing; or (6) information pertaining to an offense other than a felony or misdemeanor, such as an infraction.

(d) Subtenant and subsubtenants shall not inquire about or require applicants, potential applicants for employment, or employees to disclose on any employment application the facts or details of any conviction history, unresolved arrest, or any matter identified in subsection (c) above. Subtenant and subsubtenants shall not require such disclosure or make such inquiry until either after the first live interview with the person, or after a conditional offer of employment.

(e) Subtenant and subsubtenants shall state in all solicitations or advertisements for employees that are reasonably likely to reach persons who are reasonably likely to seek employment with Subtenant or subsubtenant at the Premises, that the Subtenant or subsubtenant will consider for employment qualified applicants with criminal histories in a manner consistent with the requirements of Chapter 12T.

(f) Subtenant and subsubtenants shall post the notice prepared by the Office of Labor Standards Enforcement ("OLSE"), available on OLSE's website, in a conspicuous place at the Premises and at other workplaces within San Francisco where interviews for job opportunities at the Premises occur. The notice shall be posted in English, Spanish, Chinese, and any language spoken by at least 5% of the employees at the Premises or other workplace at which it is posted.

(g) Subtenant and subsubtenants understand and agree that upon any failure to comply with the requirements of Chapter 12T, the City shall have the right to pursue any rights or remedies available under Chapter 12T or this Lease, including but not limited to a penalty of $50 for a second violation and $100 for a subsequent violation for each employee, applicant or other person as to whom a violation occurred or continued, termination or suspension in whole or in part of this Lease.

(h) If Subtenant has any questions about the applicability of Chapter 12T, it may contact the City's Real Estate Division for additional information. City's Real Estate Division may consult with the Director of the City's Office of Contract Administration who may also grant a waiver, as set forth in Section 12T.8.

7. Local Hiring Requirements for Subtenant Alterations and Improvements. As of the Effective Date, Section 22.25 is hereby added to the Sublease, as follows:

"Subtenant Alterations and Improvements are subject to the San Francisco Local Hiring Policy for Construction ("Local Hiring Policy") (San Francisco Administrative Code §6.22(G)) unless the subtenant improvements are undertaken and contracted for by Subtenant and are estimated to cost less than $750,000 per building permit; or meet any of the other exemptions in San Francisco Administrative Code Section 6.22(G). Accordingly, Subtenant, as a condition of this Lease, agrees that, unless subject to an exemption or conditional waiver, Subtenant shall comply with the obligations in San Francisco Administrative Code Section 6.22(G), and shall require Subtenant's subsubtenants to comply with those obligations to the extent applicable. The requirements are summarized below. Before starting any Subtenant Improvement Work, Subtenant shall contact the City's Office of Economic Workforce and Development ("OEWD") to verify the Local Hiring Policy requirements that apply to the Subtenant Improvement Work, and Subtenant shall comply with all such requirements. Subtenant's failure to comply with the obligations in this subsection shall constitute a material breach of this Lease and may subject Subtenant and its subsubtenants to the consequences of noncompliance specified in the Local Hiring Policy, including but not limited to penalties.

(1) For each contractor and subcontractor performing subtenant improvements in amounts exceeding the Threshold Amount for a Covered Project, Subtenant and its subsubtenants shall comply with the applicable mandatory participation levels for Project Work Hours performed by Local Residents, Disadvantaged Workers, and Apprentices set forth in Administrative Code §6.22(G)(4).

(2) For Covered Projects estimated to cost more than $1,000,000, prior to commencement of any work subject to the Local Hiring Policy, Subtenant and its subsubtenants shall prepare and submit to Port and the City's Office of Economic and Workforce Development (OEWD) for approval a "local hire plan" for the project in accordance with Administrative Code §6.22(G)(6).

(3) Subtenant and its subsubtenants shall comply with applicable recordkeeping and reporting requirements and shall cooperate in City inspections and audits for compliance with the Local Hiring Policy, including allowing access to employees of its contractors and subcontractors and other witnesses at the Premises.

(4) Subtenant agrees that (i) Subtenant shall comply with all applicable requirements of the Local Hiring Policy; (ii) the provisions of the Local Hiring Policy are reasonable and achievable by Subtenant and its subsubtenants; and (iii) Subtenant and its subsubtenants have had a full and fair opportunity to review and understand the terms of the Local Hiring Policy."

8. Counterparts. This First Amendment may be executed in counterparts with the same force and effect as if the parties had executed one instrument, and each such counterpart shall constitute an original hereof.

9. Full Force and Effect. Except as specifically amended herein, the terms and conditions of the Sublease shall remain in full force and effect.

7 WHEREAS, Naval Station Treasure Island is a military base located on Treasure Island
8 and Yerba Buena Island (together, the "Base"), which is currently owned by the United States
9 of America ("the Federal Government"); and,

10 WHEREAS, Treasure Island was selected for closure and disposition by the Base 11 Realignment and Closure Commission in 1993, acting under Public Law 101-510, and its 12 subsequent amendments; and,

13 WHEREAS, On May 2, 1997, the Board of Supervisors passed Resolution No. 380-97,
14 authorizing the Mayor's Treasure Island Project Office to establish a nonprofit public benefit
15 corporation known as the Treasure Island Development Authority (the "Authority") to act as a 16 single entity focused on the planning, redevelopment, reconstruction, rehabilitation, reuse and 17 conversion of the Base for the public interest, convenience, welfare and common benefit of 18 the inhabitants of the City and County of San Francisco; and,

19 WHEREAS, Under the Treasure Island Conversion Act of 1997 (the "Act"), which 20 amended Section 33492.5 of the California Health and Safety Code and added Section 2.1 to 21 Chapter 1333 of the Statutes of 1968, the California Legislature (i) designated the Authority as 22 a redevelopment agency under California redevelopment law with authority over the Base
23 upon approval of the City's Board of Supervisors, and (ii) with respect to those portions of the 24 Base which are subject to the Tidelands Trust, vested in the Authority the authority to 25 administer the public trust for commerce, navigation and fisheries as to such property; and,

1 WHEREAS, The Board of Supervisors approved the designation of the Authority as a
2 redevelopment agency for Treasure Island in 1997; and,

3 WHEREAS, The Board of Supervisors rescinded designation of the Authority as the 4 redevelopment agency for Treasure Island under California Community Redevelopment Law
5 in Resolution No. 11-12; and that such rescission does not affect Authority's status as the 6 Local Redevelopment Authority for Treasure Island or the tidelands trust trustee for the 7 portions of Treasure Island subject to the tidelands trust, or any of the other powers or 8 authority; and

9 WHEREAS, The City and County of San Francisco, as the predecessor Local Reuse
10 Authority for the Base, negotiated a proposed Base Closure Homeless Assistance Agreement
11 and Option to Lease Real Property ("Homeless Assistance Agreement") with the Treasure
12 Island Homeless Development Initiative ("TIHDI"), a consortium of nonprofit corporations
13 organized to utilize the resources of the Base available to help fill gaps in the continuum of 14 care for homeless persons and families, pursuant to the Base Closure Community
15 Redevelopment and Homeless Assistance Act of 1994; and,

16 WHEREAS, In 2011, the Authority and TIHDI executed the Amended and Restated
17 Base Closure Homeless Assistance Agreement ("Amended Homeless Assistance 18 Agreement") and approved by the Board of Supervisors in Resolution no. 243-11; and,

19 WHEREAS, Within the Amended Homeless Assistance Agreement is the Jobs and 20 Equal Opportunity Program ("JEOP") which describes job training and employment
21 opportunities for TIHDI's member organizations for formerly homeless and economically
22 disadvantaged San Franciscans; and,

23 WHEREAS, Sections 6 and 7 of the JEOP identifies specific opportunities for TIHDI
24 member organizations who operate social enterprises to be given the Right of First Offer
25

1 ("ROFO") for economic development opportunities including catering and temporary property
2 management services, and these services cannot be bid out outside TIHDI until the good faith
3 process outlined in the ROFO process has been satisfied; and,

4 WHEREAS, On March 12, 2014, the Authority Board of Directors approved Sublease
5 No. 809 between TIHDI, Toolworks ("Toolworks"), and SOL ROUGE, LLC. ("SOL ROUGE"),
6 (hereafter referred to as the "Collaborative") to market and manage special events conducted 7 in the Administration Building; and,

8 WHEREAS, On Over the past 7 months, the Collaborative has successfully provided
9 16 employment and job training opportunities to formerly homeless and economically
10 disadvantaged San Franciscans some of which have led to permanent employment within the 11 catering and event management industry; and,

12 WHEREAS, Under the proposed First Amendment, the Collaborative is requesting to 13 amend the Original Sublease to extend the Term, expand the initial Premises to include Casa
14 de la Vista and Chapel, and to increase the Base Rent to $20,000 per month from December
15 1, 2014 through June 30, 2015, and $25,000 per month commencing July 1, 2014; now, 16 therefore be it.

17 RESOLVED, That the Authority hereby authorizes the Treasure Island Director or his 18 designee to execute said First Amendment to Sublease with the Collaborative effective
19 December 1, 2014, and expiring on November 30, 2015, in substantially the form attached
20 hereto as Exhibit A; and be it

21 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Directors hereby finds that (i) entering into 22 the First Amendment to Sublease will serve the goals of the Authority and the public interests
23 of the City, and (ii) the terms and conditions of the First Amendment to Sublease are 24 economically reasonable; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Directors hereby authorizes the Treasure Island Director or his designee to enter into any additions, amendments or other modifications to the First Amendment to Sublease that the Treasure Island Director or his designee determines in consultation with the City Attorney are in the best interests of the Authority, that do not materially increase the obligations or liabilities of the Authority, that do not materially reduce the rights of the Authority, and are necessary or advisable to complete the preparation and approval of the First Amendment to Sublease, such determination to be conclusively evidenced by the execution and delivery by the Treasure Island Director or his designee to execute Director of Island Operations or her designee of the documents and any amendments thereto.

CERTIFICATE OF SECRETARY

I hereby certify that I am the duly elected Secretary of the Treasure Island Development Authority, a California nonprofit public benefit corporation, and that the above Resolution was duly adopted and approved by the Board of Directors of the Authority at a properly noticed meeting on November 19, 2014.

2. General Public Comment

Becky Hogue commented on the TI Thanksgiving Dinner and the traffic issues raised over Fleet Weekend.

Mark Dunlop recognizes the traffic concern.

Tammy Powers, Tran's Bay Bike Shop, stressed the importance having bike repair shops on Treasure Island once the Bay Bridge bike path connects, suggested a bike concession on YBI, and recommended a bike shuttle from Treasure Island to San Francisco.

3. Report by Treasure Island Director

Robert Beck, Treasure Island Director, reported on Treasure Island events from Fleet Week to holiday celebrations.

The American Red Cross conducted a Shelter Activation workshop Nov. 3 at the TI Gym.

TIDA has been working with DPW and Admiral Security to secure vacant buildings on the Island. If residents observe people entering or around vacant buildings they are encouraged to call PPS.

A lease with Verizon is being negotiated to install three new wireless facilities on TI and YBI. Island Wi-Fi performance is also being reviewed.

FOST 4 has been finalized and an amendment to FOST 1 has been issued clearing the way for the transfer of the property.

Street Scape Master Plan will be submitted on December 1.

The Trust Exchange Agreement has been signed by the governor. Exchange to occur in March.

Mr. Beck recognized two arborists with the DPW Bureau of Urban Forestry that work with TIDA to maintain the trees on the island, Samisone Tupou and Ha'afe Lavalu.

The Nominations Committee will be held December 10th at 1:00pm, prior to the TIDA Board Meeting.

4. Communications From and Received by TIDA

There was no discussion on Communications by Directors.

There was no public comment.

5. Ongoing Business by Board of Directors

There was no discussion on Ongoing Business by Directors.

There was no public comment.

6. CONSENT AGENDA

a. Approving the Minutes of the October 8, 2014 Regular Meeting

b. Resolution Approving and Authorizing the Execution of a Fourth Amendment to Sublease No. 389 with the Treasure Island Museum Association for Suites 111, 021, 015, and 011 in the Administration Building, Treasure Island, San Francisco, California (Action Item)

There was no public comment on Consent Agenda.

Director Dunlop moved the consent agenda.

Director Mazzola seconded the motion.

This item passed unanimously.

7. Update on YMCA After School Program

Kareem Hickman, Associate Director YMCA, reported on the YMCA after school program.

The program is averaging 35-40 kids this last month.

Junior High students have only been able to have limited participation because of the SFUSD bus schedule. They arrive when only 30-45 minutes remain.

Healthy living is being promoted. Being in the gym is helpful to get everyone active.

Six students have made the Honor Roll, Four of which were first time on the Honor Roll.

Of the 60 students enrolled, at least 70% of the kids are attending the program, which is up from 40%. This is the result of parents, partners, and community support.

Director Dunlop thanked Mr. Hickman for his dedication and hard work.

Director Richardson asked if martial arts is still part of the program.

There was no public comment.

8. Resolution Approving and Authorizing Execution of a First Amendment to Sublease No. 809 with the Treasure Island Homeless Development Initiative, a California nonprofit corporation, Toolworks, a California nonprofit corporation, and SOL ROUGE, LLC., a California limited liability company, to include the Casa de la Vista and Chapel to the Premises for Special Events.

Jack Nathanson, TIDA, presented the Resolution. TIDA staff recommends the TIDA Board of Directors to approve the amendment.

Director Richardson voiced support for the program.

Director Dunlop moved the item.

Director Mazzola seconded the item.

This item passed unanimously.

9. Update on Department of Public Health Nurse Intervention Clinic

Kristen Matteson, registered nurse at Clinic, provided an update on the DPH Nurse Intervention Clinic.

The DPH Clinic opened in April 2013 and provides on-site consultation and advice, health education, prevention screening, blood pressure and blood sugar screenings, flu shots, and pregnancy testing. Since opening 146 residents have visited the Clinic. 123 adult patients and 23 pediatric patients. DPH has been working with Housing Providers on community outreach.

Mark Connors thanked the Clinic and requested more presence in the community.

Elizabeth Washington, Island resident, thanked the Clinic.

Nella Gonzales, Catholic Charities, thanked the Clinic and recommends having more privacy at the Clinic. More privacy would increase visits.

Becky Hogue thanked the Clinic.

10. Update on Navy Environmental Remediation Efforts

Keith Forman, BRAC Environmental Program Manager, presented on the Navy's environmental remediation efforts.

Major progress has been made across the Island. Mr. Forman provided an overview of the cleanup progress, the progress and status of CERCLA sites, the radiological program, and provided an update on the transfer.

Thirteen CERLA sites have been closed. There are eight open CERLA sites on Treasure Island (Sites 6, 12, 24, 32, 21, 27, 30, 31).

Housing area scans were completed on Aug. 19, 2014. A survey completion report issued Nov. 19, 2014.

Samples collected for radiological soil concentration data; draft report issued Nov. 6.

Gamma walkover survey and scanning conducted; draft report will be issued in December.

Completed four FOSTs between 2006-2014.

The goal is to complete the initial transfer to the City in Dec. 2014.

Director Richardson, Director Dunlop, and Director Samaha all raised questions regarding contaminants encapsulated by building slabs if there is deterioration of the foundation in the future.

Mark Conners recommended the bus tour conducted by the Navy on 11/8.

Becky Hogue though the bus tour was helpful and commends the Navy on their communication to residents.

11. TICD Presentation on Street Scape Master Plan

Kevin Conger, CMG, presented the Street Scape Master Plan.

Mr. Cogner presented the proposed street network, street families, transit network, bicycle network, pedestrian network, fire access, accessible parking, accessible loading, street trees, understory planting, intersection design, and shared public way.

Some changes in the plan include wider streets for fire access, and universal accessibility.

The shared public way is a new street plan for San Francisco. They are pedestrian friendly but also accessible for rare vehicle use.

Director Richardson commented on the 300+ acres of open space. A Transportation and Infrastructure Committee was created to go over these plans.

Director Tsen appreciated the bike friendly and pedestrian friendly plan. Director Tsen asked if the bike paths are separate on the retail streets.

Director Dunlop appreciated how environmentally correct the plan is.

12. Discussion of Future Agenda Items by Directors

There was no Discussion of Future Agenda Items by Directors.

There was no public comment.

13. Adjourn: 8:30pm

Individuals and entities that influence or attempt to influence local legislative or administrative action may be required by the San Francisco Lobbyist Ordinance [SF Campaign and Governmental Code 2.100] to register and report lobbying activity. For more information about the Lobbyist Ordinance, please contact the Ethics Commission at 30 Van Ness Avenue, Suite 3900, San Francisco, CA 94102, telephone (415) 581-2300, fax (415) 581-2317 and web site <http://www.sfgov.org/ethics/>.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE SUNSHINE ORDINANCE

(Chapter 67 of the San Francisco Administrative Code)

Government's duty is to serve the public, reaching its decision in full view of the public. Commissions, boards, councils and other agencies of the City and County exist to conduct the people's business. This ordinance assures that deliberations are conducted before the people and that City operations are open to the people's review. For more information on your rights under the Sunshine Ordinance or to report a violation of the ordinance, contact: Administrator, Sunshine Ordinance Task Force, 1 Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett Place, Room 244, San Francisco CA 94102-4689; by phone at 415 554 7724; by fax at 415 554 7854; or by email at sotf@sfgov.org.

Citizens interested in obtaining a free copy of the Sunshine Ordinance can request a copy from the SOTF or by printing Chapter 67 of the San Francisco Administrative Code on the Internet, <http://www.sfgov.org>

Monthly Maintenance Common Area Charges 2014

6589—MAINTENANCE-COMMON AREA CHARGES: The figure of an average $28,300 per month/$339,608 per year is included. Common Service charges are referenced in Section 3.1.2. and 3.1.3 of Exhibit 1 as part of the Exhibits to the Sublease Agreement. Common Service Charges are composed of two parts: a charge for the land ($6,886.96 per month) and a charge for the structures ($23,317.54) The Common Area charge for the structures is a function of each apartment's square footage. While Common service Charges per annum have been historically fixed at $30,204.50 per month/ $362,454.00 per year based upon a portfolio of 632 units, this expense was reduced in July 2007 by $1,962.38 per month to $28,242.10 per month/$338,905.20 per year with the return of the 54 "borrowed" units to Treasure Island Homeless Development Initiative. The Common Area Charges are now based upon a portfolio of 578 units.

Subject: Percentage Rent for Treasure Island Housing Project Sublease for Oct 2014

Enclosed is our payment of Percentage Rent in the amount of $192,804 for the Oct 2014 period, calculated per the sublease agreement. You should note that these expenses reflect a suspension of reserve funding as outlined in the sublease requirements but continue to include accrued funds to pay Possessory Interest charges of the property. In addition, the amount disbursed has been reduced by $9,378, recouping 1/36th of prior year audit adjustments outlined in the 2010 Audit (with an additional $13.00 deduction in final repayment month). As of today we have recouped 28/36th of prior year audit adjustment and the balance will need to recoup is $75,037.00.

Calculation of Funds Available for Distribution

TIDA receives 95% revenues remaining after adjusting gross revenues by operating expenses, current accretion due and the repayment of ledger balances based on sublease specifications. Funds expended for replacement reserve eligible items are expensed in the period expenses are recognized. To the degree that these costs are reimbursed from the replacement reserve account, percentage rent will be adjusted in the period that the reserve draw is approved.

For the month of Oct 2014, actual Total Revenues were about 2.87% above budgeted Total Revenues. Total expenses for Oct 2014 were approximately 15.63% above budgeted for the month. The result was that Funds Available for Oct 2014 Distribution were $212,824 or about 25.11% below budgeted amounts. This is the result of several major ongoing projects including moisture remediation. These over budgeted expenditures make up 94% of the variance in the amount eligible for % rent distribution.

Calculation of Percentage Rent

Based on operations, a total of $212,824 in adjusted Gross Revenues after costs of operations are available for distribution for the Oct 2014 period. These revenues are distributed as follows:

Oct 2014 Distributions	Oct 2014 Actual	Oct 2014 Budgeted
Available for Distribution	$212,824	$284,166
Percentage rent for TIDA	$202,182	$269,947
Repay Prior overpayment 28 (1/36 th total per period)	-$9,378
Net Disbursed as percentage rent to TIDA	$192,804	$269,947
Percentage rent for JSCo	$10,642	$14,207

This percentage rent breakdown reflects the current year split by TIDA/JSCo. Beginning with April 2005 disbursements, TIDA receives 95% of revenues after expenses, while the John Stewart Company percentage is 5% of the amount.

NAVAL STATION TREASURE ISLAND, SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA – FINDING OF SUITABILITY TO TRANSFER FOR PARCELS A THROUGH I (FOST 4)

Dear Mr. Forman:

The Department of Toxic Substances Control (DTSC) has reviewed the Final Finding of Suitability to Transfer for Parcels A through I (FOST 4), Naval Station Treasure Island, San Francisco, California dated October 30, 2014. The purpose of this FOST is to document parcels of real property comprising part of the former Naval Station Treasure Island (NSTI) as environmentally suitable for transfer by deed under Section 120 (h) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, in a manner that is protective of human health and the environment. Based on our review of the Final FOST 4, DTSC concurs that areas comprising the NSTI transfer parcels under FOST 4 are suitable for transfer.

This FOST concurrence is based on information available to DTSC at this time. In the event that new information is identified that would indicate environmental concern, DTSC reserves the right to require additional investigation and/or remediation if needed. In addition, if any of the FOST parcel is considered for construction of a school utilizing state funding, a separate environmental review process in compliance with California Education Code 17210 et. seq. will need to be conducted with DTSC approval.

NAVAL STATION TREASURE ISLAND, SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA – AMENDMENT NUMBER 1, FINDING OF SUITABILITY TO TRANSFER FOR PROPERTY ON TREASURE ISLAND

Dear Mr. Forman:

The Department of Toxic Substances Control (DTSC) has reviewed the "Amendment Number 1, Final Finding of Suitability to Transfer for Property on Treasure Island, Naval Station Treasure Island, February 15, 2006" dated November 17, 2014 (FOST Amendment). The purpose of the FOST Amendment is to document changes in the 2006 FOST based on the results of the 2014 Historical Radiological Assessment Technical Memorandum, and additional environmental actions conducted in three areas within the 2006 FOST parcels. The FOST Amendment includes the revised boundaries of real property comprising part of the former Naval Station Treasure Island (NSTI) which are environmentally suitable for transfer by deed under Section 120 (h) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, in a manner that is protective of human health and the environment. DTSC concurs that areas comprising the NSTI transfer parcels under the FOST Amendment, comprising of approximately 159 acres, are suitable for transfer.

This FOST concurrence is based on information available to DTSC at this time. In the event that new information is identified that would indicate environmental concern, DTSC reserves the right to require additional investigation and/or remediation if needed

Treasure Island Community Watch & Safety Report

December 2014 Edition

Covering the month of November

Please email any questions or comments to TICW@outlook.com

Crime Report for November 2014

The site providing the details for calls for service (Crimemapping.com) is missing a key span of data for Treasure Island for the month of November. I am researching other sources for the data and am engaging two city agencies to help provide more direct access to the crime stats. For this month I will not be publishing the usual charts as they may be misleading.

On December 3rd the Treasure Island Community Watch group met to discuss the latest crime information. Lt. Pera of Southern Station was present and confirmed that burglaries rose significantly during November and that the police are actively investigating. SFPD reported 10 burglaries or attempted burglaries (Ozborn-2, Flounder, Bayside, Ave. H, Reeves, Ave. B, Northpoint, Mariner-2). Most of them occurred during the day but several occurred at night.

Several methods of entry are noted - entry through unlocked door, window, smashed sliding glass door, etc. In at least two cases burglars were encountered within the apartment.

Unfortunately an increase in burglaries is expected for this time of year not only on Treasure Island, but in the whole of San Francisco.

While the trend over the past two years is toward a reduction in burglaries (most in the residential areas) and an increase in auto break ins (non-residential area), the trend over the past three months is the opposite with an increase in burglaries and a decrease in car break ins.

At the meeting we requested more patrols in the various courts and streets by both SFPD and PPS Security and asked that the various venue's and events take greater responsibility for raising awareness about possible car break-ins as they tend to occur in the non-residential areas.

Crime reduction is everyone's responsibility - SFPD, residents, security companies, and housing providers. The community plays a vital role in reducing crimes.

It bears repeating: report suspicious behavior to the non-emergency number (553-0123) and any crimes in progress to 911. Be aware of your surroundings, look out for your friends and neighbors.

What is "Suspicious?" (or, When to Call the Police)

*Adapted with permission by the Arlington, Tx.
Police Department*

At a past Community Watch meeting the subject of "what exactly is suspicious behavior" came up. The article below has been widely reproduced on the internet and is offered as some thoughts on the subject

Help the Police Help You! No police department can function effectively without the concerned assistance of responsible citizens. Police are depending upon you to call and report whenever you observe suspicious persons or actions.

Some people fail to call police simply because they are not aware of what seemingly innocent activities might be suspicious. Others may notice suspicious activity and be hesitant to call for fear of seeming to be a "nosy neighbor" or a "crank." Still others take it for granted that someone else has already called.

Call the police immediately about all suspicious activity—and do it yourself. Don't worry about "bothering" them, because this is the police department's purpose. Don't worry about being embarrassed if your suspicions prove unfounded. Think instead about what could happen if you don't act.

Describing a Suspicious Incident to Police

The following information is the most helpful when reporting an incident:

- Who did I observe?
- What specifically did I see?
- Where did I observe the suspicious behavior?
- When did I observe the suspicious behavior?
- Why do I think the behavior is suspicious?

plus, for a person:

- Sex
- Race
- Age (approximate)
- Height (approximate; use 2 inch blocks)
- Weight (approximate; use 10 lb. blocks)
- Build (medium, heavyset, thin, etc.)
- Hair (color, length, include facial hair)
- Complexion (light, dark, ruddy, olive)
- Eyes (color, glasses)
- Peculiarities (scars, tattoos, missing limbs)
- Clothing (from head to toe, style, defects)
- Weapons (if any)
- Method of escape (direction, vehicle, etc.)
- Compare the person to yourself or someone you know and for a vehicle

- Year, make and model
- Body type (2 door, 4 door, van, SUV, etc.)
- Passengers (number of people in vehicle)
- License Plate (most important)
- Damage or anything unusual (logos, etc.)

So, What Is "Suspicious?"

Basically, anything that seems even slightly "out of place" for the area or during the time of day in which it occurs could mean criminal activity.

- A stranger entering your neighbor's house when it is unoccupied may be a burglar.
- A scream heard anywhere may mean robbery or rape.
- Offers of merchandise at ridiculously low prices could mean stolen property.
- Anyone removing accessories, license plates or gasoline from a car should be reported.
- Anyone peering into parked cars may be looking for valuables left displayed in the car.
- Persons entering or leaving a business place after hours could be burglars.
- The sound of breaking glass or other explosive noises could mean an accident, housebreaking or vandalizing.

- Persons loitering around schools, parks, secluded areas or in the neighborhood could be sex offenders.
- Persons around the neighborhood who do not live there could be burglars

Not every stranger who comes into your neighborhood is a criminal by any means. There are perfectly legitimate door-to-door sales, repair, and service people moving around our neighborhoods all the time. But criminals do take advantage of this by assuming the guise of the legitimate business representatives. Read on for examples of behavior that can initially appear normal but that take on another character on closer observation.

After all, if a criminal looked like a criminal, no one would have any trouble spotting him/her

When Normal Behavior Can Become Suspicious Behavior

- Someone is going door-to-door in your neighborhood. Watch for a while. If after a few houses are visited, one or more of the persons tries a door to see if it is locked or goes into a back or side yard, it could be a burglar. Such action is even more suspicious if one person remains in front when this occurs or if there is a car following a few houses away.
- Someone waiting in front of a house or business becomes suspicious if the owners are absent, or – if it is a business – the business is closed. This might be a lookout for a burglary in progress inside.
- Anyone forcing entrance to or tampering with a residence, business or vehicle is suspicious anytime, anywhere.
- A person running, especially if carrying something of value, could be leaving the scene of a crime.
- Carrying property could be suspicious too, if it's at an unusual hour or in an unusual place, and if the property is not wrapped as if just purchased.
- A person exhibiting unusual mental or physical symptoms may be injured, under the influence of drugs or otherwise needing medical or psychiatric assistance.
- Much human traffic to and from a certain residence is not suspicious unless it occurs on a daily or very regular basis, especially during late or unusual hours. It could possibly be the scene of vice activities or a "fence" operation.
- Any vehicle moving slowly and without lights, or following a course that appears aimless or repetitive is suspicious in any location, but particularly so in areas of schools, parks and playgrounds. Occupants may be "casing" for places to rob or burglarize, or could possibly be a drug pusher or sex offender.

- Parked occupied vehicles containing one or more persons are especially significant if observed at an unusual hour. They could be possible lookouts for a burglary in progress.
- Vehicles being loaded with valuables are suspicious if parked in front of a closed business or untended residence—even if the vehicle is a legitimate looking commercial unit. More and more professional thieves are taking the time and trouble to "customize" their vehicles with special signs in order to move more freely without suspicion.
- Apparent business transactions conducted from a vehicle, especially around schools or parks and if juveniles are involved, could mean possible drug sales.
- Persons being forced into vehicles—especially if juveniles or females—may mean a possible kidnapping.
- The abandoned vehicle parked on your block may be a stolen car.

Other Unusual Activities Worth Reporting

- Continuous "repair" operations at a non-business location could mean stolen property being stripped, repainted and otherwise altered.
- Open or broken doors or windows at a closed business or residence whose owners are absent could mean a burglary in progress or already completed.
- Unusual noises such as gunshots, screaming, sounds of fighting, or a dog barking excessively -- anything that suggests foul play, danger, or illegal activity.
- Unusually strong chemical odors in a residential area or near a storage building may indicate an illegal drug operation.
- Someone parking a vehicle on one street and walking to another street could indicate a burglar or thief attempting to hid their escape vehicle.

In Summary- all 9-1-1 immediately if you observe possible criminal activity While some, if not all, of the suspicious situations described above could have innocent explanations, the San Francisco Police Department would rather investigate a situation that could suggest criminal activity than be called when it's too late. Your involvement could save a life, prevent an injury, or stop a crime.

To improve your own safety, remember these basics:

- Call the SF Safe (415-553-1984) for a free home security check, and implement the suggested improvements.
- Mark your property with your driver's license number.
- Participate in the Treasure Island Community Watch group; get to know your neighbors

Captain's Message

As we approach the holiday season, I want to remind everyone to be aware of your surroundings when shopping in the city. Do not leave any packages visible in your vehicle that will spark the interest of those that want to ruin your day. We also have begun our Safe Shopper Campaign and we will have additional officers on the streets. Please take a look at SF SAFE's holiday season safety resource sheet.

Officers at Southern had been very busy and have made some great arrests as you will read below. The Giants World Series Parade, although wet was a big success and the officers assigned did a great job in dealing with the huge crowds and wet weather.

On Thursday, December 4 at 4pm we will host "Coffee with the Foot Beats;" So join our Foot Beat Officers for coffee at the Safety Hub at 72 6th St.

On Tuesday, December 9 at 12pm we will host our Toy Drive and another Coffee with the Foot Beats. So join our Foot Beat Officers for coffee and bring an unwrapped toy to donate. The event will be held at the Safety Hub at 72 6th St.

Have a great and safe thanksgiving, and remember those who are less fortunate.

Happy Thanksgiving

Significant District Incidents

10.31.14

Robbery with Force

6th St. & Market St.

On 10/31/2014, a female victim reported at Southern Station, a street robbery. The victim, who was attending the Giants Parade celebration, had been standing on Market Street at Mason Street when the robbery occurred a little after noon.

The victim was standing on the sidewalk with her sister looking at her Iphone when an unknown juvenile African American male, approached her from the left and grabbed the phone from her hands.

The subject then took off running west bound on Market Street through the crowd. The victim chased the subject but was then pulled from behind by her backpack by unknown subjects who appear to be in collusion with the suspect, thus preventing her from continuing the chase. Fortunately, the victim was not injured during the incident.

The victim attempted to "ping" her phone and it pinged to the area of Market at 7th Streets. However, due to the size of the crowd all parties were lost in the area and it was difficult to positively locate and identify the suspects for an arrest to be made.

10.31.14

Robbery with a Gun

6th St. & Market St.

On Friday 10/31/2014 at approximately 1342 hrs Officers assigned to the Market Street Corridor during the Giants Championship parade were approached by a victim who was bleeding from his nose. The victim told the Officers that a group of approximately ten black male juveniles stole his wife's iPhone 5S (with a wallet carrier containing her driver license) at the southwest corner of Market and Beale Streets.

The victim's wife stated that she was taking photos of Madison Bumgarner when someone took the cell phone from her hand. She looked in the direction of the thief and saw a group of about ten black juvenile males walking away. She was unsure who took her phone. She followed the group along with her husband and brother.

The victims followed the group south on Beal Street and then west on Mission Street. At the intersection of Mission and Fremont, the group noticed that the victims were following them. All of them stopped and confronted the husband and punched him in the face. Another suspect lifted his shirt, exposing a gun. All of the suspects then ran away west on Mission St.

Upon being notified of the incident, Tactical Units alerted dispatch that they were in a foot pursuit in the area of Mission and 4th Streets after a group of males. Tactical units detained five juveniles, who matched the description of the suspects, but no iPhone or a handgun was recovered.

The husband did identify two as being in the group that took his wife's phone and punched him.

All parents of the juveniles were notified.

10.31.14
Possession of a Loaded Firearm, Arrest Made
6th St. & Market St.

On 10/31/14 at approximately 1445 hrs, Officers were working surveillance for the Giants parade in the area of 6Th St and Market St when they began observing a large group of Hispanic males and females who started to congregate on the southwest corner of the intersection of Market Street and 6th Street.

Officers observed that several members of this group were consuming alcoholic beverages while standing on the public sidewalk and that several of the group members were wearing red articles of clothing which was unusual because most of the parade celebrants were dressed in Giants memorabilia and colors (black and orange).

Based on the Officers training and experience that gang members including "Norteno" gang members will often times will wear their gang colors on public occasions in order to show affiliation to their gang and to distinguish themselves from the crowd, they continued to observe this group.

One male in particular began to stick out since he constantly touched his left upper jacket pocket. Officers observed the subject place his hand into his left upper jacket pocket and then remove it while simulating a handgun with his fingers.

Based upon observations, officers had reason to suspect that the subject may be concealing a firearm or other weapon on his person. At this time, Officers on patrol were dispatched to look into the matter and make contact with the suspect.

The Officers located the suspect and began talking to him. The Officers observed the suspect make rapid movements with both hands towards the front of his jacket. The Officers were able to grab both of the suspect's hands and place them behind his back. While standing face to face with the suspect, the Officers could see the shape of what appeared to be a small firearm.

During a pat search for weapons, a small caliber firearm was found. The suspect was placed under arrest. When asked by Officers if he was affiliated with the Norteno gang, he said

"They (San Mateo county jail) say I am".

Numerous units also responded to the area for assistance in questioning others who were seen with the suspect. No further guns were found and no arrests were made.

10.31.14
Warrant Arrest
5th St. & Market St.

On 10/31/14 at approximately 1631 hours, Officers were assigned to a Specialist Bike Squad for the San Francisco Giants World Series Parade. The Officers were riding northbound on Market St when they observed a male subject inciting a fight with the Westfield Mall Security. The Officers contacted the subject to ascertain his reason for causing a disturbance.

During the conversation with the subject, he admitted that they would not let him in the mall because he was consuming an alcoholic beverage. The subject also admitted that he may have an outstanding warrant. A records check on the subject revealed a felony and misdemeanor bench warrant for his arrest. The subject was arrested and later also found to be responsible for a burglary at Walgreens which occurred on 07/07/14.

11.04.14
Stolen, Recovered Vehicle, Arrest Made
Treasure Island

Officers on patrol in a marked patrol vehicle observed a vehicle with no front plate parked on Striped Bass (T.I.). The Officers then observed the rear plate and ran a records check. The vehicle came back to a 1995 Honda stolen out of San Francisco. There appeared to be no one in the vehicle.

Upon approaching the vehicle on the driver side, Officers could now see a white male sleeping on the driver seat, with the seat reclined all the way down. One Officer knocked on the window and identified himself as a police officer. The subject in the vehicle opened his eyes and saw the Officers then proceeded to grab the key out of the ignition and put it in his sock. The second Officer knocked on the passenger side window and told the subject to unlock the doors.

The suspects' peculiar actions and him being in the stolen car led the officers to place the suspect under arrest. The vehicle's owner was contacted and the vehicle which was stolen on 10/25/14, was returned.

11.08.14
Possession of an Air Gun
Bluxome St. & 6th St.

On 11/08/14 at approximately 1623 hours, Officers on patrol driving in a marked patrol unit, responded to Bluxome Street regarding a report of an Asian male waving a handgun. Multiple SFPD marked units responded to the scene. Upon arrival, Officers observed a subject matching the description with a black handgun in his right hand.

The subject was ordered to drop the gun to which he complied. The Officers grabbed the suspect and handcuffed him for further investigation. The Officers who secured the gun, picked it up and realized it was not a real functional handgun but rather a plastic pellet gun. The pellet gun appeared realistic and had no orange tip on it.

Upon further investigation, we immediately learned this was part of a film studies project and the handgun was a prop. Other individuals on scene were all Foreign National Chinese Students attending The Academy of Art University. I spoke with the project producer, who was also a student attending the Academy of Art who informed me this project was for their Film Studio class.

All parties involved were apologetic for the confusion and did not realize the toy gun would cause concern. The project producer was explained the potential danger of filming his project on a public street with a realistic looking toy gun.

After completing the investigation, the Officers returned the pellet gun to the students and further advised them of the potential danger of shooting a movie with realistic props in public without making the proper notifications to the police department and getting the appropriate permits. The subjects involved complied with the Officers instructions and stated that it would not happen again.

11.08.14
Dog Bite, Cite Issued
5th St. & Market St.

On 11/08/14, Officers in a marked patrol unit were dispatched to a report of a physical altercation with a dog bite victim. The Officers arrived on scene and observed to males walking around the front lobby. The men both claimed to have been bitten by a pit bull so Medics were called to the scene.

The desk clerk for the apartment complex stated she had a video feed from the third floor and was able to see a man closing his dogs into his apartment. One victim stated that he is an acquaintance of the man with the dogs and went to collect money for an unspecified debt. When the man opened his door, the victim demanded money from the man. During the altercation, one of four pit bulls in the room leapt at the victim and bit his right thigh. The dog owner then ran away.

A witness said a 'miniature pit bull' also bit him repeatedly as he fled back into his room.

As Officers finished their questioning, the front desk clerk advised them that the Dog owner was walking to the front lobby. The dog owner entered the front lobby and was willing to speak to the Officers regarding the incident.

Three of the four pit bulls located inside the dog owners' room were seized since they were identified as having bitten other people during the incident.

The dog owner was cited for the incident. The parties involved were treated by medics, as necessary but all refused further actions.

11.08.14
Narcotics Arrest
Mason St. & Eddy St.

Southern Station Officers responded to a call of an individual "selling drugs" from a red Acura near Mason St. and Eddy St. in the Tenderloin district.

Southern Station Officers responded to the area on Bicycles and contacted the suspect who was seated in the driver's seat of the Acura. Upon contact, Officers observed a bottle of Promethazine Codeine Syrup in the driver's side door panel.

The suspect stated that he did not have a prescription for the codeine syrup, in violation of 11350(a)H&S. The suspect was told that a call was received regarding illegal narcotics activity from the vehicle. The suspect replied, "Man, I'm just using a little powder." When asked what type of powder he was referring to, he said "Cocaine."

Based on the Officers' observations and the codeine syrup in the vehicle, The suspect was placed under arrest for 11350(a) H&S.

A probable cause search of the vehicle was issued and the search revealed a small zip-lock baggie containing a white powdery substance – suspected cocaine base, in the driver's side door panel, a plastic bag containing a green leafy substance – suspected marijuana in the vehicle's center console, and an additional unopened bottle of Promethazine Codeine Syrup in the trunk of the vehicle.

The Officers conducted narcotics tests on the substances and confirmed quantities of illegal Narcotics in the bags.

11.09.14
Possession of Burglary Tools and Narcotics
Stillman St. & 4th St.

Officers were dispatched to the area of 4th St. and Stillman St. regarding a report of a male with a flashlight looking into parked vehicles.

While driving east on Stillman St. from 4th St., Officers observed a male walking west on Stillman St. on the Southside of the street holding a cell phone and using the cell phone as a flashlight to look into parked vehicles.

The Officers stopped and detained the suspect for questioning. The Officers found the suspect to be in possession of a small piece of a spark plug attached to a black wire. Based on that discovery, the suspect was placed under arrest for the possession of burglary tools.

During a search incident to arrest, Officers also seized one glass bowl pipe from the suspects right rear pants pocket. The suspect was cited for possession of Burglary tools and Narcotics paraphernalia and later released. The spark plug and glass bowl pipe were booked as evidence at Southern Station.

11.10.14
Warrant Arrest
United Nations Plaza

On 11/10/14, Officers were patrolling the area of 7th St and Market St. At approximately 1058 hours they observed a subject displaying several over the counter medications for sale at UN Plaza, in violation of 869 MPC – vending in public without a permit.

The Officers made contact with the man responsible for the set up who informed them that he had a heroin problem and was trying make money to support his habit.

After running a records check, the Officers found that the subject had outstanding warrants so they placed him in handcuffs and booked him at Southern Station.

11.12.14
Burglary, Arrest Made
4th St. near Brannan St.

On 11/12/2014 at approximately 0329 hours, Officers responded to a business near 4th St. and Brannan St., regarding an alarm activation. As Officers arrived on scene they observed a damaged window and a suspect riding a bicycle away from the scene

The Officers ordered the suspect to stop but he ignored the directions and rode into a parking lot where he then dumped his bicycle and continued on foot westbound on Bluxome Street.

Additional units arriving on scene caught the suspect who was still in possession of stolen property which was identified by the price tags still on the items.

Based upon the Officers immediate response to the scene, the suspect being the only person in the area at the time of the incident, the suspect fleeing the scene on his bicycle in possession of multiple stolen items from the premise, the suspect having cuts on his hands from the broken glass, and finding shards of glass on the bottom of his shoes, the Officers arrested the suspect for Burglary.

Carjacking with a Gun, Arrest made
Folsom St. near The Embarcadero

At approximately 6am, Officers responded to the area of Folsom St. near the Embarcadero regarding a carjacking that had just occurred. Upon arriving on scene, Officers spoke with the victim who stated that his car had just been stolen by a suspect at gun point.

The victim told Officers that the suspect ran up to him just after he exiting his parked car and pointed a black handgun at him and said "Give me your keys!" The victim threw his car keys into the street and ran into a business to call the police. The victim was shaken up but not injured.

Officers were able to track the victim's phone which was left in the vehicle and found that the phone was located in Oakland. The Oakland Police Department was notified of the phones last known location and that it may lead to the suspect and stolen vehicle.

At approximately 2pm, Oakland Police Dispatch notified SFPD that the listed vehicle stolen in a carjacking incident earlier on this date had just been recovered by the O.P.D. and a suspect was placed into custody.

SFPD Southern Station Investigators went to Oakland and recovered the vehicle and confirmed that the suspect in custody was the same person who stole the vehicle at gun point from the victim. Upon processing the vehicle, CSI located the weapon used in the incident and booked it as evidence.

*311 will also take police reports if you DO NOT have any suspect description and the crime is not in progress. After meeting these conditions these are the reports 311 will take: Harassing phone calls, vehicle break in, vehicle tampering, lost property, theft, and vandalism/graffiti reports.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT OPPORTUNITIES

SF NERT Program

The San Francisco Neighborhood Emergency Response Team (NERT) is free training from the San Francisco Fire Department in how to help yourself and your neighbors prepare for and respond to a disaster by working together. The 20-hour training includes personal preparedness, light search and rescue, disaster medicine, shutting off your utilities, and how to participate as a member of a neighborhood response team. NERT also offers continuing training for graduates and activities that support building robust neighborhood teams. For more information, visit the NERT website at <http://sfgov.org/sffdnert> , or contact Lt. Erica Arteseros at (415) 970-2022 or sffdnert@sfgov.org.

Auxiliary Law Enforcement Response Team (ALERT)

What is the ALERT Program?

The San Francisco Police Department has developed a volunteer citizen disaster preparedness program. The Auxiliary Law Enforcement Response Team (ALERT) is modeled after and works in partnership with the San Francisco Fire Department's Neighborhood Emergency Response Team (NERT). The ALERT program will train members of the public to assist law enforcement in essential tasks after a major disaster. Such tasks may include: traffic control, foot patrol of business and residential areas, and reporting criminal activity. Volunteers must be at least 16 years of age and live, work, or attend high school in San Francisco.

Three steps to becoming an ALERT volunteer:

1. Complete NERT training and receive certification. To register for NERT training courses please visit www.sfgov.org/sfnert
2. Once NERT certified, forward a copy of your NERT ID card to the ALERT program. sfpdalert@sfgov.org
3. After clearing a basic background check the individual is eligible to register for ALERT training.

COMMUNITY BOARDS
Building Community Through Conflict Resolution

Are you having difficulty with someone? A loud neighbor? Disrespectful roommate? Unresponsive landlord? Community Boards' Neighborhood Mediation Program can assist you with quality of life issues (noise, parking, pets, graffiti, maintenance, etc) or relationship conflicts (family members, roommates, landlords, neighbors, etc).

A mediation is a confidential and voluntary meeting where people discuss difficulties they are having with each other assisted by impartial third-parties, our mediators. Our mediators are trained to help people come up with workable and lasting solutions. They don't give advice or make judgments. The goal is to help everyone feel heard, understood and respected.

We offer our services in English, Spanish, Mandarin and Cantonese at low- to no-cost. No one is turned away for lack of funds. Contact Community Boards at (415) 920-3820 x100 or learn more at www.communityboards.org.

New Program from SF SAFE

www.safebikes.org

SF SAFE, in partnership with the San Francisco Police Department has launched a new program called SAFE Bikes. This is a no cost bicycle registry program administered by San Francisco SAFE. Anyone can register their bicycle by going to www.safebikes.org and clicking on the registration icon. SAFE in collaboration with the San Francisco Bicycle Coalition, and several local businesses are undertaking a citywide educational campaign to teach people how to protect themselves against bike theft/burglary by recommending locking strategies and suggesting theft prevention tips.

The registration portion of SAFE Bikes is just beginning and can be a useful tool down the road if people register their bicycle. A Police Officer will be able to identify a registered bicycle on the street by the metallic sticker specifically made for this bicycle registration program. Each person receives a sticker when they register their bicycle. I encourage everyone to go to www.safebikes.org and utilize this free service offered.

SF native pays homage to city history in unique gin and absinth offerings

Saying goodbye to SF's Empress of China

By Rhys Alvarado

I'm sitting in the backseat of a Dodge Durango on Treasure Island tasting gin and absinthe with the man behind Raff Distillerie. Nice way to catch a buzz on a sunny day.

The folks who have been waxing the tops of bottles of absinthe are making their way out to lunch as Carter Raff and I talk booze.

A fifth-generation San Franciscan with a love for The City's history, Carter said he has always been fascinated with the stories and lore that surround the town. He has made it a point that important figures -- or animals -- in San Francisco history make it onto his bottle labels.

His Bummer and Lazarus gin starts off as a grape brandy. It's then distilled again with things like coriander seed, bitter orange peel and licorice root. It's dry and citrus-forward, tasting of grapefruit peel on the front end and delicate juniper in the back with a silky mouthfeel.

In the Barbary Coast days, Bummer and Lazarus were two stray dogs that were so good at hunting and catching rats that San Francisco passed a law to protect them from the lethal dog catchers at the time. It's said that the two dogs met after Bummer saved Lazarus from a fight. From that point on, they were inseparable.

When Lazarus died, 30,000 people showed up at the funeral. When Bummer died, Mark Twain wrote his eulogy.

Raff's absinthe is rich, deep and spicy. It's named Emperor Norton Absinthe after the celebrated citizen of San Francisco and self-proclaimed emperor of the United States. Emperor Norton is said to have come up with the idea of connecting San Francisco to the East Bay with a bridge and tunnel. He also caught cable cars every day to make sure that they were on time. And, like me, he loved to prowling the city and raise his glass.

The absinthe is made in the old French way, with grape brandy and wormwood sourced from 30 miles outside of Pontarlier, France, the old capital of absinthe.

In the works for Raff is a rum agricole and, possibly years down the road, a bourbon.

Long before he was distilling and shipping some 1,000 bottles of absinthe and gin a month, Raff developed an inkling for booze.

At 12, Raff was the kid making Ramos fizzes, pina colodas and blue Hawaiians when his mother had her friends over. While in college at Sonoma State, he made wine. And while working in Hollywood after college, Carter built a still in his small apartment where he first tried, and failed, at distillation.

"I tried my hand at distilling in '97, but it's really not something you should be doing in an apartment," Raff said. "I've always liked making stuff, building my own equipment, making a product I could give to someone that I could be proud of."

In 2010, Raff met Will Smith of San Francisco Vodka. Smith invited him to share his space if Raff shared his still.

"I was a still without a distillery and he was a distillery without a still," Raff said.

In 2011, Raff established Raff Distillerie. The distilling and bottling line (all of which Raff built) is located in what was once a maximum-security prison, and Raff runs his test still in what looks to be an old cell.

Smith and Raff share equipment and space, but run their own operations. "I've always been fascinated with alcohol and the graphic design of it and that you could make a thousand different cocktails out of gin that are unique in its own way," Raff said.

That's why some call gin the most important spirit in cocktails. Raff's booze can be found in 10 states at 650 locations, with plenty around the Bay Area.

After the distillery tour, I sat on the rocks of Treasure Island and popped open my bottle of absinthe and poured one back. By this time, the sun had gone but the top of the San Francisco skyline just floated on the thin layer of fog.

Life's no bummer.

City Wired: San Francisco's Island of Net Neutrality

By Rachel Swan

Tuesday, Nov 18 2014

President Obama shook up the blogosphere last week after issuing a video statement on proposed rules for an open internet. Adopting a surprisingly bullish stance, the president argued that cable service providers shouldn't be allowed to arbitrarily block off websites, or extract fees for "priority" access (for so-called "internet fast lanes"). That seems like a win for consumers, even if it doesn't guarantee the FCC will agree with Obama's suggestions. At least regulators now have political cover to do right by the public.

Comments 1

FRED NOLAND

But that doesn't necessarily liberate us from the Comcasts and AT&Ts of the world, says the staff at San Francisco-based Electronic Frontier Foundation. Net neutrality may be a milestone, but it can't fix the cable service oligopoly.

"If there was more competition in the market, people could vote with their wallets," EFF activist April Glaser says, adding that in many U.S. cities, customers only have one or two service providers to choose from. At most, they have four: Comcast, AT&T, Verizon, and Charter Communications.

San Francisco might be the exception. With more than 100 miles of city-owned fiber optic cable coursing below the streets, the city could create its own robust broadband system, Glaser says — one that would provide a viable alternative to the Big Four. The EFF views municipal fiber the way progressives view public power. If the latter can extricate us from PG&E, the former can free us up from Comcast.

Whether that's feasible is still an open question. In 2011, the city's Department of Technology reported that much of that cable was "dark," or unused, since the department typically installs 312 strands of backbone cable for each new extension, even though city agencies only use about 12 of them. At the time, Department of Technology officials wanted to lease out the excess for up to $200 per month, per mile — or $1.8 million annual revenue. They ultimately made good on those plans, spokesman Ron Vinson says, leasing fiber to entities like UCSF, and using some municipal bandwidth to supply free wifi to Market Street and to 32 parks.

But, Vinson says, providing a local network connection for every San Francisco home is a fiber-optic pipe dream.

"I don't know if we're gonna be able to do something like public power," he says, adding that such a network would require the city to dig up big stretches of sidewalk, then set up the kind of customer service infrastructure that takes big companies 10 years to build.

Granted, the Department of Technology can still lay enough fiber to wire a 300-unit housing complex — per Vinson, officials currently have their sights on a new Treasure Island Development. But even the Island isn't an island of net neutrality: Residents wanting to use the internet would have to call one of the Big Four carriers.

It's Gonna Snow at the Treasure Island Flea!

It won't be quite like this.

Sun, fog, mist, and occasional rain — the weather in San Francisco is pretty routine, and snow is hardly ever in the forecast.

But if you're a San Franciscan who just can't enjoy winter without a dusting of the white stuff, make some sandwiches with the your Thanksgiving leftovers and head to Treasure Island on the weekend following Turkey Day. The final Treasure Island Flea of 2014 will take place on November 29-30, and the is wrapping up its year with freshly made snow.

The 10 tons of snow will be made and sprinkled on the island, and it's probably a good idea to get there early (if it's sunny, the snow's not gonna stay fluffy for long); the Flea is also providing DIY snowman kits for those who feel like releasing your inner sculptor, complete with carrots for noses.

They're following the theme by also offering a 2-for-1 deal on cocktail snowcones during Happy Hour (10 a.m.-noon), you know, for those of you who want a morning buzz before playing in the snow.

If snowball fights, snowmen, and alcoholic snowcones aren't your thing, the Flea will also be featuring its regular rotation of shopping and food offerings — so you'll be able to do some Christmas shopping without the Black Friday mobs that spill over into the weekend.

Treasure Island Flea (1 Ave of the Palms), November 29-30, admission is $3.

Reconnaissance, we looked for signs of earthquake-induced “ground effects” such as ground displacements, liquefaction, ground shears, and lateral movement. A number of historic Victorian Mansions that were built in the 1890s suffered from chimney failures of the unreinforced masonry (URM). A few (over 100-year-old) buildings on the waterfront suffered some visible exterior damage, but mainly to the URM exteriors (ie. broken chimneys and cracked brick facades). We did not observe any structural collapse of the buildings, and repairs were under way within hours after the earthquake. With regard to our observations of earthquake-induced ground damage (beyond ground shaking), we did not observe any significant sign of this during our site visit. Also worth noting was that it appeared that all new construction such as buildings, roads and utilities installed since the 1900s showed no damage effects from the earthquake.

ENR collaborated with The Geotechnical Extreme Events Reconnaissance Association and Earthquake Engineering Research Institute (EERI) to conduct findings and contributed to the recent report of findings and knowledge gained from the earthquake. To view the full report, visit www.geerassociation.org.

DRILLING BEGINS AT TREASURE ISLAND

Stefanos Papadopoulos, GE

On October 14, 2014, we began the Treasure Island offshore drilling exploration associated with the first development phase. Our subcontractor, Gregg Marine, mobilized the Quin Delta drill ship from Moss Landing, California. The Quin Delta is a self-propelled, ocean-going vessel with a shallow draft of only 5 feet, and equipped with 80-foot spuds that are used for stable anchoring.

ENR's staff boarded the ship at 6:45 am and the Quin Delta moved to a location off the western shoreline of Treasure Island in proximity to the historic Building 1.

We advanced several cone penetration probes, drilled one deep boring and collected grab samples for the design of the Treasure Island New Ferry Terminal improvements.

New Bay Bridge plan: Turn piers into park

By Jaxon Van Derbeken Published 4:58 pm, Friday, November 28, 2014

IMAGE 3 OF 3

Piers stand in the San Francisco Bay at the eastern end of the old Bay Bridge span in Oakland on Thursday, November 13, 2014. Some of the concrete piers at the east end of the old span may be left in place after the historic bridge is demolished.

Bay Bridge officials want to keep some of the old eastern span's concrete piers in place — a plan they say would save on demolition costs and create a memorial for the historic structure.

It's a plan, however, that also would run contrary to an agreement bridge officials have with environmental authorities to minimize damage to the bay, both from building the new eastern span and tearing down the old one.

The eastern span project is running over its $6.4 billion budget, so to save money, bridge officials are trying to cut costs where they can. One idea, backed by Steve Heminger, executive director of the Metropolitan Transportation Commission, is to keep several of the old span's concrete piers in place near the Port of Oakland.

but the project has not gone out to bid.

Saving the five piers closest to Oakland would save about $10 million. Sparing the foundation closest to Yerba Buena Island would save more than $2 million.

But any plan to keep the piers in place would not be free and would not be easy.

Seeking permission

Keeping the piers would require a sign-off from the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers and Coast Guard as well as the state bay conservation agency. "There have been staff-level discussions with each of these agencies," Rentschler said.

Brad McCrea, regulatory program director for BCDC, said the agency has been in talks with bridge officials about the plan.

Leaving the piers as is, however, is not an option, McCrea said.

"The removal of the old Bay Bridge is required by the BCDC, in its entirety," McCrea said. "We stand by that, and we think it's very important."

On the other hand, he said, leaving a few pier foundations in place is not out of the question, if it included "building bridges out to walkways or piers over to them."

"We have told them at the staff level that we would consider leaving a few of these in for a different purpose, allowing them to reuse them for public access or recreational purposes," McCrea said.

He said he expects the commission will hear proposals on the bridge pier plan sometime in the spring.

J.D. Hardesty, spokesman for the Army Corps of Engineers in San Francisco, said there have been informal discussions on the issue. "We have received no formal request. I know there have been discussions, meetings, but that is all there is," he said. "Currently, the permit and mitigation plan (requiring the piers to be demolished) remain in place."
